APPELLATE SIDE.

HOUSE-TRESPASS.

CRIMINAL REVISIONAL APPLICATION NO. 201 OF 1920.

Mohanlal Maganbhai Javeri ..... Applicant (Accused).

vs.

The Crown—Arjunlal Karsanlal (Original Complainant) ..... Opponents.

(Before the Hon. Chief Justice and Justice Shah.)

This was a criminal application for revision against the decision of Mr. M. M. Joshi, City First Class Magistrate, Ahmedabad.

The case for the prosecution was as follows:—

The complainant Arjunlal Karsanji is the manager of the Gosaiji Maharaj Temple situated at Kalupur Dosaivadapole, Ahmedabad City. He used to stay in the Mandir. The accused Mohanlal Moganlal Javeri stays in the neighbourhood and opposite the temple. At about 5 p.m. on 20th September, 1919, the accused Mohanlal and his servant Rama Kalidas entered the Gosaiji Maharaj Mandir without the permission of the door-keeper Lakha Maldev and went to the terrace of the Mandir on the first storey with intent to insult and annoy the complainant and the Maharaj. The accused used hot and insulting words in connection with the complainant and the Maharaj. Before entering the terrace the accused entered a side-room on the right of the first storey known as the Shakgar where raw vegetables are shred for the deity. The accused unlawfully remained in even though persuaded to leave the Mandir and not to make a disturbance in the Mandir at a time when the Darshan had commenced. The accused left the Mandir only when Ramprasad Mansukhram came there and took him out with many persuasions. The complainant therefore lodged a complaint against the accused for house-trespass under Section 448, I. P. Code.

PLEA OF INNOCENCE.

The accused pleaded not guilty. He admitted the entry at 5 p.m. on 20th September, 1919, but he pleaded innocence on the following grounds:—That he entered the Mandir with the permission of the door-keeper, that being a very respectable man with good connections and having cordial relations with the Mandir people he entered the temple in good faith to complain to the Maharaj about the gutter nuisance, that he was wrongfully confined and beaten in the Mandir, that the complainant was not a lawful person to complain as he was not in possession of the Mandir.

The learned Magistrate found that the accused and his servant forcibly entered the temple without the permission of the door-keeper; that he used hot and insulting words to the complainant and that the intention of the accused could be nothing else than to insult and annoy the Maharaj and to commit disturbance in the Mandir with a view to humiliate the Maharaj in the eyes of his worshippers. That the accused though a respectable man had no cordial relations (as alleged) both with the complainant and the present Maharaj and his entry into the temple to go to the private apartments of the Maharaj without the permission of the Maharaj was not at all in good faith. That the temple being provided with double gutters and municipal connections the responsibility to clear off the nuisance if any was on the Municipality consequently the accused had no sufficient grounds to enter the Mandir and his plea that he entered the temple to complain about the nuisance is quite groundless and an after-thought. That the accused was neither confined nor beaten by the complainants, but that he received the injuries on account of a fall. That the complainant being the manager of the Gosaiji Maharaj Temple was the proper person to lodge the complaint.

Therefore the accused was found guilty of house-trespass and convicted. In passing the sentence the Magistrate observed that in a case like this a deterrent punishment ought to be inflicted, but in view of the old age and antecedents of the accused it sentenced him to pay a fine of Rs. 5 or simple imprisonment for one day in default.

The accused thereapon applied to the High Court in revision to set aside this conviction and sentence.

THEIR LORDSHIPS' JUDGMENT.

Their Lordships after hearing the argument observed that there was no harm in the accused going to see the Maharaj to complain about the nuisance. That there was no evidence to show that when the accused entered the temple he had formed the intention to insult and annoy the Maharaj or any person in possession of the temple. The complainant thought the accused had entered the Mandir without permission and so he prevented him proceeding further and hence an altercation took place. The complaint was a trivial one. The conviction was therefore set aside and the fine if paid must be refunded.

Mr. Jinnah with Mr. G. M. Thakore appeared for the petitioner.

Mr. Dhirajlal K. Thakore with Mr. Bansidharlal D. Mehta appeared for the opponent.

MR. ATHAVLE'S LENIENCY.

SENTENCE ENHANCED BY HIGH COURT.

In this case, complainant-appellant Shaikh Haji Husein Babamiya, a cutlery merchant residing at Parel, was assaulted on the 26th of March, 1920, by (1) Abdul Rahim and (2) Syed Abdul Jabar. The injuries sustained by the appellant were (a) total loss of right eye-sight, (b) a compound fracture on the head 4in. by 1in. by 1in., (c) fracture of the right forearm, (d) a contused wound on the back of the head. In consequence of these injuries the complainant, who is about 60 years old, had to live in the J. J. Hospital for a month and a day over.

The police prosecuted the abovenamed accused—the respondents and they were put for trial at Dadar before Mr. Athavle, the Acting Fifth Presidency Magistrate, on a charge of grievous hurt under Section 325, I. P. Code. Both the accused pleaded guilty to the charge against them. The complainant being in the hospital was not even examined by the learned Magistrate. But the House Surgeon of the J. J. Hospital was examined in respect of the injuries.

MR. ATHAVLE'S LENIENT SENTENCE.

The learned Magistrate in his own judgment however stated:—"The evidence leads no doubt that these two accused committed a savage and unprovoked assault on the injured person who is a man of about 50 years old. These two men used sticks and behaved with great brutality. Accused No. 1, Abdul Rahim, was the organiser of this crime. I convict accused No. 1 and sentence him to four months' rigorous imprisonment and accused No. 2, Syed Abdul Jabar, to one month's rigorous imprisonment." The learned Magistrate convicted the accused on the 9th of April. Complainant Shaikh Haji Husein Babamiya came out of the hospital on the 27th of April and subsequently moved the High Court in its criminal revision jurisdiction for the enhancement of sentence.

Mr. Sohrab B. Bannaji, Bar.-at-Law, with Mr. Mahale, pleader, appeared for the complainant-appellant.

APPEAL BEFORE HIGH COURT.

The learned Judges while granting the rule had remarked that as a rule they did not interfere in such matter on private application made by the complainant, but looking to the severe injuries sustained by the complainant, they thought it was a fit case to grant rule. The matter accordingly came up for hearing before Justices Shah and Crump on Friday, 17th September, for final disposal. After hearing counsel for the appellant and the Government Pleader, who did not want to say anything in respect of the punishment inflicted by the Magistrate and left the question of punishment with the Court entirely, their Lordships gave the following judgment:—

"In this case we directed notice to issue to accused Nos. 1 and 2 to show cause why the sentence should not be enhanced. Notice is served upon accused No. 1 and has not still been served upon accused No. 2. We have allowed the case to be brought on for hearing at this stage without waiting for the service of notice on accused No. 2. The judgment shows that the principal offender in this case was accused No. 1. In that view of the matter, we do not think that it is necessary to proceed any further against accused No. 2, Sayed Abdul Jabar Sayed Hussein.

MAGISTRATE'S LENIENCY CRITICISED.

"As regards Abdul Rahim Hassan, accused No. 1, who had been found guilty of causing grievous hurt, the nature of the injuries caused by the accused to the complainant are indicated by the medical evidence. These injuries are severe and it seems to us that the learned Magistrate has taken a far too lenient view in passing the sentence against accused No. 1. Having regard to the nature of the injuries we think that a substantial sentence against accused No. 1 was necessary. We accordingly enhance the sentence of four months' rigorous imprisonment passed upon him by the learned Magistrate to rigorous imprisonment for two years. It may be observed that having regard to the nature of the injuries, it would not have been inappropriate even if the accused had been committed to the Court of Sessions. But we do not now at this stage consider it necessary in the interest of justice to adopt that course."

DRIVING CAR WITHOUT TAIL LIGHT,

ACCUSED ACQUITTED.

At the Esplanade Police Court Rao Bahadur Chunilal Seervai disposed of a case in which Sergeant Gouther charged Mr. A. R. Mantri with causing his motor car to be driven without a tail light.

Mr. Bowen, Government Solicitor, appeared for the prosecution, while Mr. Vasaji, Bar-at-Law defended the accused.

The facts of the case were that on the 11th May last, motor car No. 3198, of which the accused is the owner, was being driven along Queen's Road, by the accused's chauffeur without a tail-light. The accused was not in the car at the time but it was being driven with his permission and on his business.

The accused's chauffeur deposed that when starting the tail-light was lit but it went out on the way and the prosecution also admitted that the tail-light was affixed to the car and it was in proper order but it was not alight whilst proceeding along Queen's Road.

Having regard to the above fact the Court thought the proper charge against the accused should have been under Section 43 (b) which says "the lamps shall be properly alight." The Court further observed that it had given very careful consideration to the arguments urged on either side and it was unable to find it as a matter of fact,—under the proved and admitted circumstances of the case—that the accused did permit his chauffeur to drive the car without the tail-lamp alight. In taking the analogy of the case under the licensing laws it must be considered that licensed premises are fixed buildings while a motor car is a moving vehicle. As regards licensed premises the owner or licensee can take such precautions as to make the breach of licensing laws impossible on the premises, but no amount of precaution on the part of a motor car owner would prevent a gust of wind or storm blowing out a tail-lamp.

Eventually, the Court ordered the accused to be acquitted.

FATAL JUMP FROM THIRD FLOOR.

At the Coroner's Court, Mr. A. R. King, the Coroner, and a jury held an inquestion the body of a Mahomedan, name unknown aged about thirty-seven years. The evidence showed that on Tuesday morning about 4 a.m. when Nowabali Mirzaali a Mahomedan goldsmith, residing on the third floor of a house at Bhindi Bazaar, was awakened from his sleep by a noise in his room, and found the deceased near his bed. He caught hold of him and raised an alarm. A struggle ensued and they both came on the verandah when the deceased breaking away from his captor jumped down and fell on the ground. He died instantly afterwards.

The jury returned a verdict of death caused by his having thrown himself from the verandah of the third story of a house into which he had trespassed.

TILAK MEMORIAL.

TO THE EDITOR OF "THE CHRONICLE."

Sir,—Would you please publish the following in your esteemed columns?

The whole nation wants a memorial to the late Lokmanya Tilak. There are various proposals before it: a national University, a national system of education, a cow in every home, a Congress hall and many other things all noble in conception, illustrative of the nation's love for the great leader. But so far as I know everybody has aimed wide of the mark.

There is actually a national concern started by the late Lokmanya for the service of the nation and none has thought of it, while it has been struggling to overcome stupendous obstacles. I mean the proposed evening daily, the "Democrat" of Bombay.

The Lokmanya had two papers of his own—the "Kesari" and the "Mahratta", both weeklies. The "Kesari" appeals to the Mahratta nation through their own tongue. The "Mahratta" is a masterly commentator on the events of the week, but is located at Poona.

Every evening Bombay goes empty-handed or feeds itself on the obnoxious articles catered by the "Advocate of India." Every other political party has an English daily or more. The Congress Democratic Party has none.

The Party is a force in politics and is daily gathering strength. Its home may be Poona, its work must be done in Bombay. It must offer to the nation every evening recreation from the routine of our hard and dependent life, thought for the calm and silent hours of the night.

The "Democrat" is a necessity. Its non-existence is a void which is a disgrace and it is the Lokmanya's last child. Every one, therefore, must go in for at least one share of the National Democratic Publishing Co. The share costs only Rs. 10. It is not a big amount, but it will bring to life the beloved leader's posthumous child. Just as nothing can be a better memorial to Sir Pherozeshah than "The Chronicle", so also what greater tribute can we pay to Mr. Tilak than bringing to life and perpetuate a messenger of his stentorian ideals.—Yours, etc.,

During the week under review the Home markets show further decline as will be seen from the following table :—

Crop reports from America continue favorable. At present the market is governed by outside conditions and not on weather reports. Outside conditions at present are very unfavorable and stand no chance of improvement in the immediate future.

Our Local market advanced about Rs. 12 for Fine Oomra September 20 during the week under review as the market interest lies in Oomra descriptions only some little business in Bengal and Southern for September 20 was done in the Bazar with a rise of about Rs. 5 at the most.

As for ready cotton there was tolerably good enquiry for nice descriptions at better prices than last week.

Crop prospects for the Indian crop are rather moderate owing to insufficiency of rain all over the belt.

A quiet tone has prevailed in the Cloth Market during the past week. The demand has been conspicuous by its absence. No retail or wholesale enquiry has been in evidence, either local or from upcountry, and no transaction of importance has resulted even amongst the merchants in the bazaar in Manchester piecegoods. There has been a dislocation of business due to the strike of Postmen and Telegraph peons, as merchants have not received letters or telegrams from their constituents. Considerable difficulty has been experienced in fishing out covers from the heap lying at the delivery centres, and it is feared that several important letters have gone astray, especially those containing 'hundies', which will put the dealers to great inconvenience and trouble.

The other causes that have brought about the depression in the market are (1) the deficiency of rain in some of the cultivating districts, (2) the stringency in the money market and the consequent high rate of interest, (3) the unfavourable rate of exchange, (4) the heavy arrivals whereby the stocks have accumulated, (5) the poor clearances, (6) the easier tendency of the Calcutta and Karachi markets, and last but not the least the depression in Lancashire. The whole outlook is so uncertain that mercahnts are restricting their operations and are inclined to mark time until prospects improve. On the other hand, consideration has to be given to the following factors which are working against a lower basis of values :—(1) The threatened strike of coal miners, (2) the Labour unrest, (3) the higher cost of production, (4) the Excess Profits Tax, (5) the high value of the raw material and (6) the trade with Russia. It is reported that M. Krassin has already concluded cloth contracts with the Yorkshire firms involving two millions sterling for delivery o take place within three months.

But in spite of all this, spinners generally have lost ground. A meeting of the operatives of the spinning mills in the Oldham District has passed a resolution by an overwhelming majority in favour of a general strike from the 21st instant. Thirty thousand operatives are affected and two hundred mills will be idle, of which many are already entirely closed down. The executive has decided to stand or fall by the agreement, which employers are determined to enforce. There is little likelihood of a settlement until after the holidays, a fortnight hence. East Lancashire is at present suffering from a period of depression not experienced for many years. The Cloth Markets are stagnant and over half of the looms in Blackburn are idle. Great Harwood which depends on Indian trade is, according to the Weavers' Secretary, in a terrible plight, so much so, that property owners are foregoing the increased rents and local clubs are supplying free meals. A mild sensation has been caused in Manchester by Messrs. Horrockses Crewdson and Co. Ltd., issuing a revised list intimating a reduction in the price of cotton goods of five per cent. Though the reduction is small, it shows clearly which way the wind is blowing, and it is declared to be the beginning of a long expected general break in wholesale prices. Messrs. Rylands and Sons Ltd. of Manchester, following Horrockses' example, have announced five per cent decrease in the prices of all cotton goods.

GREYS.

Manchester Grey Shirtings have not attracted much attention and values have been nominally steady. Jaconets have been easier in the absence of demand. Drills and Mulls have hardly shewn any change.

Local Mill Cloths have been in fair demand from Delhi and Cawnpore buyers and clearances have been satisfactory. Meetings have been sold at Rs. 1-11 to Rs. 12 per lb. and Longcloths at two annas per j. higher rates. Japanese goods have been moving in small quantities, but stocks are increasing owing to fresh arrivals

WHITES.

There has not been much change outwardly in White goods but the undercurrent seems to be for lower rates, as sellers are anxious to part with their holdings at sacrifices if buyers could be found for fair quantity. 39 inches by 20 yards Gold End White Mulls have been quoted at Rs. 11-8-0. 27 inches Green End Mulls have been easier by two to three annas per piece. Tape border Nainsooks in 38 inches by 22 yards have also declined by four to six annas. Dutch White Shirtings have shewn a reduction of a rupee per piece. An easier tone has prevailed in Horrockses' Shirtings, especially in forward goods, which have been bought some time back by the dealer at exorbitant rates.

The quotations for the leading chops of Greys and Whites are as under :—

SUGAR MARKET REPORT

Bombay, Sept. 24.

We have nothing special to report in our market which ruled steady throughout the week with fair demand and prices remain unchanged. Owing to absence of Principle Buyers there is practically nothing doing in forward positions excepting small business doing amongst dealers in White Java August Sept. shipment at Rs. 41-8-0 to Rs. 42 Free Bombay Harbour. Indian importers are eager sellers for September/October and October/December positions but there are few or no buyers. Karachi and Calcutta markets are steady without any business doing. Java Market keeps unsettled with no business. London market is quiet with sellers for India and little business doing. American market keeps quiet with no business. There is no news from Mauritius.

The following are the bazaar rates and stocks :—

T M O Rs. 55 equals 90s. F B Harbour stocks 5,000 bags.

Soft Rs 46 equals 80s. F B Harbour stocks 1,200 bags.

Mauritius Rs. 54 F B Harbour stocks 3,000 bags.

COLOUR MARKET.

Sept. 24.

The colour market displayed no important fluctuations this week. The values of almost all the Dyes are the same as reported last time. The activity in Alizarine is almost over. Congo has very little demand; however the home prices being firm the values here too are steady. Magenta crystals had fair inquiry and some business is recorded in German quality at Rs. 18 per lb. Genuine purchasers got concession rates. There are no prospects of immediate change in the market.

Sept. 24.

The market remained very dull in the last week and no improving features happened. The quotations were almost without fluctuations and the demand had been abnormally poor partly owing to the number of holidays and partly owing to the increasing consignments arriving here. Heralds have undergone slight shrinkage and the rates have been nearly Rs. 2/12 and less. Large lots changed hands at Rs. 2/6/0 per 800 eyes. Reeds too are steady the quotations being 3 to 4 annas per 100 dents. Roller Cloth and Flannels have some briskness however, owing to the general slump in the market the demand is poor. Stockists are rather eager to dispose off the stocks, as a few consignmen's are expected very shortly. Slubbings 13/16" are rather scarce, however, the quotations do not appear to have gone further than Rs. 45 to 50 per gross. Shuttles kept steady. Indenting in Japanese Bobbins and Shuttles has been reduced appreciably owing to the arrival of the English articles. The rates are as follows :—

Heals Rs. 2/8 to 2/12; Reeds Rs. 0/3/0; Roller Skins Rs. 65 to 80. Pickers Rs. 65 to 80; Picking Bands Rs. 3/4/0; Fillets, Rs. 1/8/0; Slubbings Rs. 45 to 50; Shuttles 13½" Jap Rs. 8/10; Shuttles 14½" Rs. 25/30.

CHEMICALS.

Sodium Sulphide continued very weak this fortnight. There has been a reduction of nearly Rs. 10 per cwt., the quotations being Rs. 45 to 50 per cwt. Lime Chloride remained steady without material changes in values. Bleaching Chloride arrived in large consignments. Bichromate of Soda and Potash underwent slight reduction in values. The mofussil as well as local mills are poor buyers. The stringency in the money market has its effect upon the stockists, as a result of which the prices have become steady without any further rise. Among sizing starches, Farina and Sago are absolutely dull without any attractive features in the market. Maize and Wheat Starches vary between Rs. 24 and 26 per cwt Glauber Salt has considerable demand. Bleaching Powder has come down to its normal level, the quotations being Rs. 25 to 30 per cwt. The quotations are as follows :—

Farina Rs. 16; Sago Rs. 12/13; Maize Starch Rs. 25/27; Wheat Starch Rs. 25; Sodium Sul Rs 45/50; Sodium Ame Rs 30/35; Bleaching Rs. 25/30; Caustic Soda Rs. 25/30; Turkey Red Oil Rs. 28/29; Glauber Salt Rs. 5; Washing Soda Rs. 6 to 7; Bichro Potash Rs 115/30; Bichno-Soda Rs. 110/15; Anti Salt Rs. 2/8.

RAJKOT CROPS.

The rain that fell here on the 19th instant amounted to 1 in. 60 cents and has greatly improved the conditions of the crops.

DR. S. RANGASWAMI IYENGAR
"DIABETES SPECIALIST."
RARE AND INVALUABLE SPECIFIC FOR THE CURE OF "DIABETES."

After a short visit to the Madras Presidency on professional work Dr. S. RANGASWAMI IYENGAR, the well-known Diabetes Specialist has RETURNED TO BOMBAY and will be glad to treat "DIABETES" suffering patients.

During the short stay he has made here before he has treated and has completely cured many persons of whom the following are a few :—

KANYALAL BADRIDAS, a Cotton Merchant, Bombay writes :—

"It gives me great pleasure in testifying to the real efficacy of Dr. S. R. Iyengar's medicinal drugs. I was suffering from "Diabetes" for the last 12 years—Commenced Dr. Iyengar's treatment—my urine was examined by the Bombay Municipal Analyst the Sp. Gravity was 1037 and sugar 5-62 per cent. After treatment, the examination of the same Municipal Analyst; and Dr. N. H. Clubwala M. D. B. Hy. (Bombay) at Dr. Masina Hospital Pathological Laboratory "Sugar was found nil" and Sp. Gravity 1013.

Mr. BHAILAL V. KHOTHARI, B.A., LL.B., Vakil, High Court, Bombay, writes :—

"It gives me great and sincere pleasure in testtifying to the real efficacy of Dr. S. R. Iyengar's medical drugs. I was suffering from Diabetes for over 4 years and had tried many well-known doctors of Bombay but without any effect. I then put myself under the treatment of the said Doctor Iyengar and he prescribed a course of 7 complete weeks for me. As each week progressed the disease that could not at all be controlled before, began to abate with the result that I was completely cured at the end of the course, in such a marvellous way that I can very well say that Dr. Iyengar is not a diabetes specialist in name but a specialist indeed in reality. My Sp. Gr. which was 1038 in the beginning of the course came down to 1015 at the end and grains of sugar per ounce of urine fell down from 24 to nil while sediments were not at all visible.

MARY PICKFORD AT THE EMPIRE.

Too rarely we get in Bombay a film which stars the most talked of cinema actress of the decade. Therefore "The Hoodlum," in which Mary Pickford is appearing this week at the Empire, should be one of the most popular films of the year.

"Hoodlum", as the reader may guess, is American slang for a little lady who is not quit a lady. Those who have read that entertaining little book, "The Terrible Twins" may liken a "hoodlum" to "Diavolo," who was the worst of that mischievous pair. To put it in plain English, the "hoodlum" in this film is a perfect little devil. She is the worst spoilt girl in the world, a little fury, a snob of snobs, but in spite of all that those who go to the Empire this week cannot help enjoying her pranks, particularly the one in which she is captured for speeding in her racing car (that little touch will appeal to motorists in Bombay) and calmly tells her innocent chauffeur that it serves him right when they are arrested for breaking all speed laws.

EMPRESS THEATRE.

Chaplin's most serious rival as a cinema comedian, Harold Lloyd, is to be seen on the screen at the Empress Theatre this week. It is a film which should tap some of the English colony in the part of the city in which his theatre is situated as well as prove a big draw to the Indian population towards the north of the city. "Bumping into Broadday" is the title. It is a title which suggests exactly what it is—a breezy film which shows Lloyd at his breeziest, and everybody who has seen Lloyd knows what that means. "Bumping into Broadway" is a comedy of the liveliest sort. Its two parts are chock ablock with mirth, and everybody who sees it will feel the happier fo rhaving seen it.

In the latest episodes of "The Man of Might", the serial film which has just had such a successful inauguration at this theatre, we are given more thrills.

GOKHALE EDUCATION SOCIETY.

BUILDING FUND FOR NEW ENGLISH SCHOOLS.

Mr. T. A. Kulkarni, chairman, Gokhale Education Society writes:—

On the 1st of September, 1920, we commenced the work of collection for the Building Fund for the New English School which has been ordered by the High Court to vacate its present premises by the end of February, 1921. In the last three weeks we have been able to collect Rs. 21,347. This prospect looks very hopeful and we have been encouraged to continue our work with greater zeal and vigour. The construction of the Building will be taken up as soon as we have Rs. 50,000 in our hands. In the meanwhile we are preparing our plans for the approval of the Municipality. The total estimated cost comes to more than a lakh.

We are extremely thankful to the generous public for having responded to our appeal and brightened the prospects. Larger sums are still required and we earnestly hope that the public of Bombay will do the needful to enable us to raise the required sum.

DIVISIONAL CUP FOOTBALL TOURNAMENT.

BRITISH OFFICERS Vs. SIGNAL SCHOOL

(FROM A CORRESPONDENT.)

POONA, Sept. 23.

The opening match in the above competition took place on Wednesday evening on the I. D. F. ground and a somewhat tame game ended in a win for the Signal School by two goals to none. The Signals had all the better of the play in the first moiety, but could only score one goal, although they were more or less in the vicinity of their opponent's goal all the time. At half time the Signals were leading by a goal to nil. The second half was a bit more exciting each side having several narrow escapes. The Signals continued to assert their superiority and scored again in this half. The officers tried hard to score, but their shooting was very erratic and the match ended in a win for the Signal School by 2 goals to 0.

Last season this trophy was played for on the knock-out system, but this year owing to there being only five entries it is being played for on the league system. The following teams are the members:—Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders, 2nd Lincolnshire Regiment, Southern Command Signal School and British Officers of the Indian Army.

THE VETERINARY COLLEGE.

TO THE EDITOR OF "THE CHRONICLE."

Sir,—The letters regarding the Bombay Veterinary College, which were lately published in your columns, have been both painful and surprising to me: painful because there was an unwarranted attempt to tamper with the dignity of a noble institution, and surprising because a couple of persons who are expected to be familiar with the affairs of the College could venture to misrepresent facts.

The charges made are shallow and meaningless. The superintendent of games is accused of keeping his purse tight. Well, he is maintaining two tennis courts, hockey, football, and cricket teams and a ping-pong table, providing the students with rackets and balls, and I wonder if it is not avarice to expect greater comforts for a monthly subscription of annas. Secondly, it is alleged that the professors insist on the second year (failed) students also taking down notes. Leaving aside the fact that it is most unhealthy to permit a certain number of students to remain idle in a class room, it is a pity the aggrieved have not as yet understood that they have to deal with "science" which requires precision above everything and that as new knowledge in the shape of improved and more successful methods is being added to veterinary science every day the notes also have to be modified and extended every year. The third grievance is that the students are taken to the slaughter house only once. They are taught the theory in the class and have enough of the practical in the dissection theatre. The slaughter house is there with the gates wide open, ever welcoming the B. V. students into its precincts and it is unkind if not silly to expect the venerable principal to accompany them every time they wish to go there!

It is doubtful if the complainant ever informed the principal of his grievances. Any folly is pardonable once. I hope the moisy "muzzled" would kindly learn for his future guidance that he adopted a rather rash and unfair method of avenging some punishment, for so it seems to be—

I remain, etc.,

This Yakuti or life giving nectar has been prepared from the best, choicest and richest vegeable drugs. It has wonderful properties of increasing virile power and it rectifies urinary disorders. In fact it makes man a man. This valuable medicine is used in large quantities not only by our Rajas, Maharajas, Nawabs and many of the nobility, aristocracy and gentry in this Country, but it is greatly patronized by people in all countries of Europe, America, Asia and Africa. It is needless to expatiate upon the magical qualities of this our invaluable medicine. We recommend it especially to those persons who desire to tone the nervous system, to strengthen the body, refresh the memory, and to guard against debility. Suffice it to say that the use of this medicine is recommended to those who have any faith in the Ayurvedic medicines. It works like a charm and the effect is lasting. It replaces lost power and rejuvenates the emaciated and it is enough to say that much is not that which a perfumer admires. It is that which diffuses fragrance of its own accord. THE BOMBAY CHRONICLE.

BRING OUR SOLDIERS HOME.

On more than one occasion have we had cause to raise the question of the use of Indian troops in foreign lands. On more than one occasion have we had reason to protest against the wasteful manner in which the resources of our country have been squandered under cover of what the Government are pleased to call "Military Expenditure." But in spite of the protests of the Press and of the public there has been no response from the Government. Instead, we have seen our soldiers march out in ever-increasing numbers to die on the battlefields of Mesopotamia, Persia, Palestine, and even along the distant shores of the Black Sea; and we have seen our military expenditure mounting up by millions without let or hindrance for the sake of adding, as Mr. Lloyd George said, "more lustre to the glory of the greatest Empire known to history." But when we say that there has been no response from the Government we must not omit to mention a salient fact. In 1911 the Government appointed a committee known as the Nicholson Committee, which was charged with the task of investigating the possibility of a reduction in the strength of the Indian Army as well as the manner of its use within and beyond India. This Committee issued in 1913 two reports, one signed by two generals, the other signed by Sir William Meyer and Lord Nicholson. Both were considered of such grave importance, being the result of two years' labour, that they, instead of being made known to the public, were duly and secretly pigeon-holed. With a great deal of flourish another Committee was appointed after the Armistice known as the Esher Committee. It, too, has issued its report, having spent a great deal of time and a great deal of money in investigating Indian Army conditions but so far its report seems to lie buried in secret places and the world at large knows as little of its recommendations as those of Lord Nicholson. As we go to press we receive the information that the report will be published on October 1.

"The Times," however, always on the scent, has mentioned an important rumour to the effect that the Esher Committee has made a renewed attempt to take the Indian Army completely out of the hands of the Government of India in order to put it entirely under the control of the War Office. Infact it is reported that the Territorial Force Bill and the Auxiliary Force Bill legislation was undertaken as a first step in carrying out the Esher Committee's recommendations whereas the second step has been the appointment of Lord Rawlinson as Commander-in-Chief in India, and we are told that his appointment violates distinctly the unwritten law that the Command should go alternatively to the British Army and the Indian Army in pursuance of the recommendations of the Esher Committee So, if the report is true, this is the end of all official investigations—an end as sinister in its purpose and black in its designs as it is innocent-looking in its phraseology. What does it mean? It means simply this that the militarists are riding the high horse and are determined to convert the Indian Army, whose sole business is or rather ought to be to protect India's frontiers, into an army subvened for the purposes of Britain's imperialistic adventures in the East. The Indian soldier, a mere fighting automaton, is to be charged with adding lustre to the glory of the Empire. He is to be used, as he is being used, to subjugate races and nations at the bidding of the blind force of Imperialism. Indian soldiers have no quarrel with the Arabs. They have no grievances against the Russians or enmity with the Turks. But they are hired soldiers and if they can be used as cannon-fodder in the interests rather of the imperialist Jingoes or the oil speculators, well so be it! We ask our countrymen: How long are they going to allow this iniquity to continue—an iniquity which is as prejudicial to their interests as it is damaging to their fair name?

To take one example only, nearly seventy thousand Indian soldiers are fighting in Mesopotamia and the cry is for more in order that an Arab State may be set up and the Arabs given a taste of "mandatory independence" in the interest of those who will benefit by the exploitation of the oil-resources of that country. It was a special correspondent of "The Times" who estimated that Great Britain was engaged in Mesopotamia "in a war as expensive as and more exhausting than the South African War." It was "The Times" which added a remarkable comment upon this when it said:

> "It has been lightly assumed that Great Britain can 'accept' mandates and carry them into effect with the aid of Indian troops. It is time to point out that if the British Government exercises mandatory powers, British troops must furnish the bulk of the garrisons. The Indian regiments are not popular in Mesopotamia, the Indian soldiers dislike the task imposed upon them, and India needs her own troops within her borders."

And what is the end of this mad policy of military adventure for India? Only this, as we said some time ago, that India shall "gain nothing but a name which must stink in the nostrils of all honourable men by permitting her soldiery to be used now against the Arabs in Mesopotamia, now against the Turks in Constantinople." Our clear duty is to demand forthwith the recall of every Indian soldier fighting abroad and to demand that the wasteful policy of letting Indian blood flow like water at the bidding of the militarists should be put an end to without delay. Men who could be better employed in producing wealth at home are now either idling away their lives rusticating in military barracks or wielding rifles and hand-grenades in order to bring back peace and prosperity to a distracted world. The Great War was a war to end all war. It has terminated as a war to end all hope of peace. Let not Indian soldiers add to the infamy of this cynicism. Let not the life of a single soldier be wasted on the plains of Mesopotamia or of any other country fighting for the sordid interests of the exploiters and speculators. In short let us put an end to this disgrace and bring our soldiers home.

THE KACHA GARHI TRAGEDY

Private Chilcott, the accused in connection with the Kacha Garhi tragedy, in which a Muhajir was horribly done to death, has been found not guilty and acquitted by the Murree Court Martial. The verdict is not surprising. But the matter cannot be allowed to rest with this verdict. The decision to have the case tried by a court-martial was in itself most unsatisfactory, there being no reason why the matter should have been removed from the jurisdiction of the ordinary courts. The Indian public, however, cannot be satisfied until, as we urged in the beginning, a most searching and impartial investigation is conducted by a body entirely independent of the local administration and the military authorities. The fact that, as the "Times" correspondent wrote, there was "reticence and delay in giving a full version of the incident" and that there was admitted inaccuracy in the first official statement, is, apart from other considerations, not calculated to inspire confidence in the proceedings of the Court Martial. The accounts of the tragedy that have been made public have sent a thrill of horror and indignation throughout the country. What are the Government of India going to do to see that justice is done?

Notes of the Day.

Mr. Lloyd George and the Revolution.

Mr. Lloyd George has scented a revolution in the miners' move. At once, without the slightest hseitation, he puts out his usual armour and tries to make the flesh of the Britisher creep with mention of the Bolshevik bogey. With the air of a patron of the poor worker and a connoiseur of the numerous schools of Democracy, he tries, firstly, to remind Labour of what it has gained by constitutional agitation. And then, assuming falsely, that Labour's present move is not constitutional, he tries to frighten the workers by saying that hey will loose all in a night. He reminds them of the Dark Age tyranny of Bolshevik Russia where the freedom of "the old despotism has been completely taken away by the new tyranny." As an election stunt this may be all very well. As the word of a wise statesman it is all very foolish. Under stress of war, as the British Delegation pointed out, numerous restrictions on personal liberty have crept in upon the political life of Russia, just exactly as they crept in upon England during the war. But, who, if not Mr. Lloyd George and his immediate and Allied Colleagues, are responsible for the continuation of an unnecessary, cruel and fratricidal war against a nation which has never ceased to demand peace?

The Fatal Day.

The miners are not going to be hoodwinked by Mr. Lloyd George. It is possible that a compromise will be effected as the Triple Alliance Deputation was expected to have returned to Downing Street in order to confer with Mr. Lloyd George. The latest report says that Mr. Lloyd George advised reference of the wages claim to a conferences of miners and owners. His desire was that wages should be governed by output. On the other hand it is stated that the miners' ballot has rejected reference to arbitration. To day is the fatal day. If the strike comes, it will probably mean revolution—on the condition that the Coalition Government remain adamant. But it is equally probable that the Government will find it safer to go to the polls and get the country's verdict on their policy. On the other hand, if the first demand of the miners about wages is conceded, the rest may be such plain sailing that an arbitration might do the work of a strike and be acceptable to the miners. Whatever the issue its gravity can under no circumstances be exaggerated.

M. Millerand, the next President?

Is M. Millerand, the present Premier of France, going to succeed M. Deschanel as the President of the French Republic? The test vote taken shows that he had an overwhelming majority over his two opponents who may or may not in the end stand against him. M. Millerand is a fire-eater. There is nothing to recommend him to the Progressive parties. And it is evident that, being the Hamlet of French militarism, he is anxious not to let the show proceed without the chief player. It is reported that he intends to ask for extended powers as President whose position to day is more of an ornament than of power. He may succeed. But he has already created enough trouble for himself with Poland, with Russia, with England, with the workers and with the country's finances to leave much hope of his leading France to the ideal of the revolutionary philosophers. Instead, France is being called in England, "The Mad Dog of Europe.' Does she want at the helm a militarist, a Prussian a nominee of the vested interests or a sober statesman who will not, in his stupor mistake a red light for a green one? It is for the Workers of France and for her noble intellectuals like Anatole France, Henri Barbusse and Romain Rolland to make reply.

The Muddlers.

The "Times" calls upon the British Government to state their policy in the Middle East. It presses also for an urgent revision of the whole Arabian policy. It may as well cry itself hoarse and all its thunderings will not have the slightest effect on the imperious British Ministry. The latter has been placed in a position of power thanks mainly to the "Times" and it has been rendered quite independent of the people and parliament. Secure of a packed vote in Parliament, it seems to care for nobody. It is hopeless to expect that it will take the public or even Parliament into confidence and discuss questions of policy. Such old-fashioned methods of Government are obsolete in the eyes of the Imperialists who dominate it. The Premier has grown too big to be present in Parliament and strolls in there only to mislead it. Egypt was declared to be a Protectorate, Persia was brought within the orbit of Britain's guidance and, in the then prevalent phraseology, it was Egyptianised. Mesopotamia was swallowed and the policy of "making bandobast" was introduced there under the guidance of officials trained in India. The visions of a big Empire in the Middle East began to loom large and a special secretary for the Middle East just as for the Colonies and India began to be talked of. But Curzon, Milner and Co. did not realise the consequences their fateful policy of adding dominions after dominions to the already overgrown Empire would entail. Circumstances have been too strong for these busy Empire-makers and Lord Milner who went to Egypt to bless it with another Montford Scheme had to enter into negotiations with its leader, recognising its independence. As the "Times" rightly observes, the so-called Middle East Department now has toppled down after the recognition of Egpt's independence. How dramatic indeed have been the developments! Egypt is now almost independent and Persia is no longer willing to sell its soul for a mess of pottage and Mesopotamia has asked Britain not over-politely to rid the country of the presence of her soldiers and civilians.

Disgraceful, if True.

Frank Johnson is in Bombay busy promoting an oil company on the strength of concessions promised, as we are informed, by the Government of Burma. If it is true that the Government of Burma have granted him concessions, it will not be surprising having regard to the attitude of defiance of public opinion which the authorities have adopted in the matter of punishing the miscreants, who outdid the Prussians in their deliberate policy of humiliating Indians. But what shall we say of those Indians who are prepared to sell their souls and the honour of their country for material ends? We are informed—we sincerely hope, wrongly informed—that one or two prominent Indians are interesting themselves in the schemes of Frank Johnson. It will be a revelation to the public when their names are published. We refrain from mentioning their names for the present in the hope that they will desist from their disgraceful activity.

A Wanton Attack

The "Times of India" seems to be out for pure mischief. While discussing the Postal Strike in its yesterday's issue, at has won only attacked the "Hindu clerical establishment of he General Post Office." The head and front of the offence of the Postal Clerks is stated to be that they informed the Postal officials that they would not do the work of postmen. The Postal officials themselves have raised no objection, but our morning contemporary has not hesitated to make a deliberate racial and mischievous attack on the Hindu establishment. It has called in Mr. Vaughan to its aid and says. "The point is according to Mr. Vaughan P. P. that they are hindering the work of the G. P. O. in a deliberate manner. Many have been transferred to sorting duties and it is alleged that they are wilfully missorting letters and packages." Mr. Vaughan should explain himself. We want to know whether Mr. Vaughan has made any such sentiments as are attributed to him by the "Times of India." We want to know further why he has adopted the highly questionable method of attacking his staff through a newspaper notorious for its anti-Indian prejudices. Hindus form 75 per cent. of the establishment and until hitherto they have never been selected for such an undignified and unjust attack. They have given every satisfaction in the discharge of the duties entrusted to them and because Mr. Vaughan or anybody else has not been able to persuade them to wear the putta and deliver letters, are they to be attacked in this mean fashion? We should like to know whether Mr. Vaughan is responsible for alleging that the "Hindu clerks in sorting duty are wilfully missorting letters and packages." If this is true, the Presidency Postmaster has ample disciplinary powers and he has no need or business to solicit the help of the Anglo-Indian paper in managing his office. Or is the malicious attack meant to excuse the blunders of the Postal officials and the great inconveniences caused to the public? Or is the "Times of India" responsible for the accusation? One can understand the anxiety of the Anglo-Indian journal not to circumscribe the strike and end it by a satisfactory settlement but spread the fire. But responsible Postal officials are expected to know their duties better. Can they not imagine what the consequences of their reckless accusations are likely to be, in these days? The Postal Union should look to the matter.

The Blockade of Truth.

The entry of the "Muslim Outlook" into this country has now been proscribed. The "Muslim Outlook" is the organ of the Islamic Bureau of Information in London and its offence, of course, is that it has bravely waged a vigorous though forlorn struggle to secure justice for Turkey and Islam. Besides its outspoken comments on the hypocritical dealing of the "Victors" in the war, its salient feature has been the publication of extracts from leading English and continental papers, throwing the searchlight of truth on the doings of the imperialists and diplomats. The object of the ban against it is evident: it is the blockade of truth, in reference to Turkish questions so far as India is concerned. But if the object is to be properly served, why should the Government not take the sensible course of proscribing all English newspapers and periodicals?

Hindu-Muslim Entente.

We draw the attention of our readers to the account given by our special correspondent of the successful manner in which the Hindu-Muslim entente was restored in Agra through the efforts of the devoted band of volunteers headed by Hakim Ajmal Khan. It is an account that every patriotic Indian will read with pride and joy. The disturbance itself was most unfortunate but it has served a useful purpose, inasmuch as it has brought into relief the reality and depth of the Hindu-Muslim entente which, as we have often emphasised, is the greatest and proudest achievement of modern India.

Non-Cooperation and Arbitration Courts.

The "Times of India" displayed its usual scepticism of any suggestion in constructive politics emanating from Indians in the remarks it made the other day regarding the possibility of voluntary arbitration. The Indian litigant, if said, is too fond of courts, too much convinced of the rectitude of his own cause to rest content with the decision of a lower court so long as an appeal to a higher tribunal is possible, or to allow a fair trial to voluntary courts of arbitration. The multiplicity of appellate courts is no doubt an arresting feature of the Indian judicial administration. But we have no reason to believe that the Government of India have provided this luxury because they are convinced about the innate love of litigation of the Indian people as appearing to them on a careful anthropological inquiry. On the contrary, a perusal of the speeches made during the debates attending the passage of the Codes of Procedure will show that it was rather an apprehension of a likely miscarriage of justice by an inadequately paid subordinate judiciary which was responsible for this feature of the administration of justice in India, than the supposed love of Indians for the courts. Justice in India, thanks to our imitation of the English practice, is a very costly commodity, often above the means of the majority of Indians. The latter would, therefore, welcome any alternative which would provide them with a cheaper and quicker substitute. "Cheap justice is bad justice" only when cheapness is purchased at the cost of integrity or efficiency. But if the proposals now made were realised, and every trade made it a custom to incorporate an arbitration clause in every contract, there would be every prospect of removing automatically one of the greatest blemishes of the judicial system in India. It is true these courts will not have the sanction of force lying behind the official tribunals. But the authority of these people's tribunals need not be doubted by those who are acquainted with the force of the new spirit of patriotism, or by those who are aware of the the most effective sanction latent in our entire social structure. If those who refused to introduce the arbitration clause or accept the authority of the popular courts were economically boycotted by their fellow tradesmen and threatened with social ostracism, there would be every prospect of the voluntary arbitration courts not only proving the most effective weapon of non-cooperation, but incidentally removing one of the crying abuses of the Indian system of judicial administration.

BRITISH DEMOCRACY.

PREMIER ON ITS ATTAINMENTS IN PAST 20 YEARS.

"LABOUR EXTREMISTS" DENOUNCED.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, Sept. 22.
Recd. 1-10 p.m., Sept. 24.

In a letter to the Coalition candidate in the Ilford bye-election Mr. Lloyd George enumerates the substantial benefits, the British democracy has won in the past twenty years by constitutional means in the land, than which there is none more free under sun. He declares that the solid attainment of the generation will be lost in one night if the Labourite extremists get their way and refers to the conditions in Russia where the Soviet system has reduced the people to a state which is forcibly remindful of the Dark Ages. Whatever freedom the workers there enjoyed under old despotism has been completely taken away by new tyranny.

Recd. 9-30 a.m., Sept. 24.

The Triple Alliance deputation had three and a half hours' conference with Mr. Lloyd George in the hope of helping towards settlement of the coal dispute. Nothing was settled but apparently the proceedings were not abortive as the deputation arranged to report to their Congress to-morrow. The feeling of the latter will most probably influence the deputation at a subsequent meeting with Mr. Lloyd George which is likely to take place.

Large crowds stood outside Downing Street until the termination of to-night's conference at nine o'clock in chilly weather awaiting the first news of what had happened within doors.

HOW LONG?

5TH DAY OF THE STRIKE.

AUTHORITIES' STIFF ATTITUDE.

CHAOS EVERYWHERE.

The fifth day has passed and sees no change in the position of the strike. All the men are still out and the officials have made no attempts to approach the men or to arrive at any reasonable mutual understanding. The Postal authorities have, in the meantime, assumed a heroic posture and say that they are fully able to cope with the situation, whatever may happen. The public, however, know better than to believe in this. More centres, the public are informed, are being opened up every moment, but that by itself does not mean much, and the sufferings of and inconveniences to, the public have got to continue on account of the stiff attitude of the Postal authorities. Every now and then the public hear rumours of the Director-General's descending from the hills, but people have not been able to see him yet. In his absence a settlement on terms cannot be arrived at.

The distributing centres which have been opened in the business part of the city are mere receptacles for letters which arrive from other parts of the country, and every man—whether he is the busiest or idlest does not matter—has to call there for his letters. In one sentence the whole situation may be summarised thus—there is complete chaos. Although the Fort is better served by the Postal Department than other parts, of the town, excepting those where the rich live, it cannot be said that the arrangements are in any way satisfacory. Outside the Fort things are as bad as they can be. And this cannot continue for ever. There must be an end to this confusion. Volunteers, while helpful in a way, are a poor substitute to trained experts. Fifteen hundred postmen cannot be replaced in a day, and nobody will believe, even if it is said, that work is going on as smoothly as ever. Telegrams are too much delayed and by the time they reach the addresses they are out of date, and are quite useless.

NO "LIGHTNING STRIKE."

The allegations of a lightning strike, and all other similar allegations, stand refuted. The authorities knew the grievances of the men, only they did not care to remedy them. Only a sympathetic gesture on the part of the authorities would end the whole trouble.

MATHRADAS MILL STRIKE.

There is no immediate danger of a G. I. P. Railway strike. The Mathradas Mill strike still continues and Mr. Mathradas is determined to dismiss the men as they are, he thinks, source of constant trouble and anxiety. About the wages the Manager informed our representative that the wages paid in Mr. Mathradas' Mills are the highest in Bombay with the exception of one or two Mills.

MALIS' STRIKE ENDS.

About the strike of the men in the Victoria Gardens the Municipal Commissioner has sent a letter to the Press that he had already recommended a general increase of Rs. 2 to the wages of the men, but the men demand Rs. 4 which cannot be given. Mr. Clayton had given 24 hours' ultimatum to the men to return to their duties, on pain of dismissal and the men resumed work yesterday. This ends the strike.

MADRAS POSTMEN'S SYMPATHY.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

MADRAS, Sept. 23

At a meeting of the postmen and postal menials of the city of Madras, it was resolved that a committee of eleven postmen and menials and office-bearers of the Union be appointed to report as to what steps should be taken to help the postmen and menials who are now on strike in the city of Bombay and what should be done now to remove the grievances of the postmen and menials of Madras.

BREAKING THE STRIKE.

TO THE EDITOR OF "THE CHRONICLE."

Sir,—I regard women as angels of mercy. I expect them to hear both sides of the question before acting as partisans. I, therefore, regret Lady Freemantle is playing the role of a blind resister in order to starve men into submission. Postmen attach little value to the worth of her little lads and lasses even though Jeremial blow the trumpet. But does Lady Freemantle and her associates imagine that the boy scouts, girl guides, and delivery centres are permanent substitutes for the present system? If not are they not, without inquiring into the justice of the men's case, aiding officials (who have turned a deaf ear to their demand for over 2 years) merely to starve men who have been serving the public with honesty and fidetity, into abject and demoralising submission. Besides are they not demoralising these little lads and lasses by placing the temptation of a "tip" in their way. One writer in the "Times of India" rejoices in recounting that one of the boy scouts declared that he got Rs. 2 for delivering a letter. Apart from these considerations has Lady Freemantle and the Postal Officials calculated the consequences of introducing the racial element in the affair? The boy scouts and girl guides are mostly Anglo-Indians. Is is worthwhile exasperating Indians and provoking the cry of Non-Co-operation? Englishmen will have then to import their coolies, and ayahs and malis from England, Englishmen and women are so little in touch with Indian feeling about Swaraj, Punjab Tragedy, outraged Indian manhood and womanhood and above all the Partition of Turkey and the lacerated feelings of Moslems that they do not realise the inminent danger of boycott by unwittingly introducing the racial element into the postal struggle for the survival of the fittest. It may be all fun and frolic for the urchins but older folks ought not to overlook these considerations.

I am not afraid of such aid in breaking the back of the men. These men are backbones not barebones. The official methods so far as they are now disclosed must end in vindicating the cause of the men. The present methods are methods to starve men with acquiescence into their miserable lot. I assure the public the strike will remain even without relief works for two months at least. If in that time the Postal officials can show that things are able to attract equally competent men into their service on the sanctioned emoluments with the assurance that it secures for them a reasonable standard of living they will demonstrate that the men's demands are not well-founded. This can only be done by investigating the accuracy of the evidence submitted by the postmen before the Committee and not otherwise. All these girl guides and make-shifts are mere sound and fury signifying nothing.—Yours, etc.,

JOSEPH BAPTISTA.

P. S.—Millions of letters are awaiting sorting. One high official has already admitted that Postmen and Telegraph peons here proved such excellent handicappers that letters and wires arrive simultaneously taking the same time in delivery.

INCONVENIENCE TO THE PUBLIC.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "CHRONICLE."

Sir,—In such a short time of Postal Strike the public in general and business men in particular have been subjected to so much inconvenience and pecuniary loss that I do not know what will be the state if this were to continue for a week more. This struggle between the Postmen and the Postal Authorities must end at once, as otherwise the public will have to suffer and not the authorities. This is a vital problem for the public and they must stir up. What are the public bodies doing? As it is admitted from all sides that the Postmen's lot is a hard one it is also the duty of the public to stand by them and render them all help.

Hoping this will find a little space in your valued columns. I remain.—Yours, etc.

A BUSINESSMAN.

MALIS' STRIKE.

OFFICIAL VERSION.

Mr. Clayton, the Acting Municipal Commissioner, sends the following for publication:—The Malis and Sweepers in the Victoria Gardens and a few animal keepers struck work on Wednesday last. They had been informed beforehand that the Municipal Commissioner had already decided to place certain proposals before the Standing Committee recommending an increase in the salary of some of the members of the labour staff and that these proposals included a general increase of Rs. 2 per month in their salary. They, however, asked for an increase of Rs. 4 but were told that after taking everything into consideration the Municipal Commissioner had decided that an increase of Rs. 2 would be adequate and that if they did not resume work within 24 hours their services would have to be dispenced with. All the employes resumed work on Thursday afternoon.

The following table gives the proposed scales of pay of these employes. It is believed that it is quite generous on a comparison with the current market rate for such labour especially as a large percentage of the Gardens staff is housed in Municipal quarters.

Head Mali Rs. 30 plus Rs. 5—Rs. 35.
2nd Mali &c. Rs. 25 plus Rs. 5—Rs. 30.
Other Malis from Rs. 17 to Rs. 23 plus Rs. 5—Rs. 22 to 28. Women sweepers Rs. 12 plus Rs. 5—Rs. 17.
Animal keepers from Rs. 17 to Rs. 28 plus Rs. 5—Rs. 22 to 33 p.m.

END OF KACHA GARHI TRIAL.

PRIVATE CHILCOTT ACQUITTED.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

MURREE, Sept. 23.

When the general court martial for the trial of Private Chilcott reassembled to-day, the Prosecuter addressed his arguments in reply. He said all evidence went to prove that there was no authority to collect tickets between the Peshawar and Kacha Garhi Stations. Medical evidence was clear that Habibullah was killed while lying on the ground, and there was no evidence to prove that the accused fired the shot that killed him. This might exonerate the accused from the first two charges, but the court would have to consider whether the accused, in company with Lieut. Hewett and sepoys from the Fort, had the common purpose of arresting, at any cost, those who had led the affray at Islamia College station. The prosecutor considered that the evidence adduced had been sufficient to uphold one of the first seven charges and it remained with the court to decide which of these charges the accused was guilty.

Before the court rose a verdict of not guilty on all charges was announced in the Court, and the accused was released.

KACHA GARHI COURT-MARTIAL.

ACCUSED'S DEFENCE.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

MURREE, Sept. 22.

At to-day's sitting of the general court martial, the accused, Private Chilcott, in the course of his statement gave his story of the events that occurred on July 8. After giving a description of the disturbance at the Islamia College and Kacha Garhi stations and his part in it, the accused stated that he bayonetted Habibullah in the left thigh to keep him quiet. Habibullah may have fallen. He certainly rose again and stood with an uplifted arm poised ready to hurl a large stone. At this instant, Chilcott heard an order to fire given by someone behind him. He shouted to Dickson, who was struggling on the ground with a Pathan immediately in front of him to move out of the way. Dickson ran towards the engine and Chilcott fired at Habibullah, but the latter did not seem to be hit as he attempted to attack again. On hearing Lieut. Hewett's command not to fire, Chilcott handed back the rifle to sepoy Allah Moherkan, whom he identified. One second later, this sepoy fired two rounds and Habibullah fell. Chilcott saw a sepoy of short stature fire two shots at Habibullah, who was lying on the ground. The sepoy after firing ran forward and bayonetted Habibullah. When the disturbance had subsided Chilcott was ordered to place the deceased and the prisoners in train under an Indian guard.

Examined by the Court, the accused said that he had aimed at the legs of the deceased.

DEFENCE ADDRESS.

After the accused had given his statement and after three witnesses for the prosecution had been recalled by the Court and examined the counsel for the accused addressed his arguments. He submitted that the evidence produced by the prosecution failed to establish the guilt of the accused in any charges laid against him. He maintained it had been shown that the accused had acted in execution of his orders when he inspected the tickets. He had received a definite instruction on the day of occurrence to inspect tickets at Kacha Garhi. Continuing, the counsel submitted that medical evidence disclosed the fact that the wound which caused the death was that which fractured the collar bone and which could have been inflicted only while the deceased was in a reclining position. It might just be assumed that the sepoy, who admitted firing at Habibullah on the ground, caused the death wound. The question of common purpose which might implicate the accused did not arise. The counsel contended that the charges of murder and of manslaughter against accused were, accordingly, out of court. With reference to the alternative charges of lesser gravity, he maintained that it had not been proved that accused had hit Habibullah with his shot, and even if it had, the accused would have been justified since he had obeyed the order to fire and order to cease fire.

After counsel had concluded his address the Court adjourned till Thursday when the prosecution will reply and the Judge Advocate will sum up.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, Sept. 22.
Recd. 4 p.m., Sept. 24.

Paris.—Alarmed apparently at M. Millerand's suggestion that the President of the Republic should have more extensive powers, the parties of the Left have resolved to oppose M. Millerand's election and have decided to vote in to-day's preparatory ballot for M. Peret, President of the Chamber or M. Bourgeois, President of the Senate, despite the fact that both have refused to stand as candidates.

STRIKE OF OIL COMPANIES' MEN.

ENDED BY GOVERNOR'S INTERVENTION.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

MADRAS, Sept. 23.

As a result of H. E. the Governor's intervention, the trouble at the oil companies' installations in Madras has been brought to an end.

It is understood the oil companies have agreed to accept the award of the Court of Enquiry, presided over by the Hon. Mr. Campbell with a modification that the Labour Commissioners' intervention in the matter of the Provident Fund should be eliminated. The cases of about 14 men dismissed after the award and before the lock-out would be reconsidered by the oil companies. They are also to take back 24 out of the fresh lot of 29 men whose services were dispensed with. The men are to resume work to-day, and no lock-out pay will be allowed.

There was a meeting of the men to-day, when Mr. Chakkrai Chetty, President of the Men's Union, explained the terms which, he said were extremely unsatisfactory. If they had been put forward by anybody other than the Governor, the speaker would not have thought of asking the men to accept them. As matters now stood it would not be advisable for the men to reject the terms his Excellency the Governor had proposed. It was quite clear if the men hesitated Government would not hesitate to help the companies which were after all the public utility services. As regards the four men whom the companies did not want the Union would support them till they secured employment. Lastly, he hoped his Excellency the Governor would see his way to withdraw the charges of assault, mischief etc., now pending against four of the workmen in the police court. After a brief consultation the men agreed to accept the terms.

TRIPLE ALLIANCE DEPUTATION.

CONFERENCE WITH MR. LLOYD GEORGE.

PREMIER SUGGESTS ARBITRATION.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, Sept. 23.
Recd. 0.30 a.m. Sept. 25.

The Triple Alliance deputation which attended Downing Street last night to confer with Mr. Lloyd George, included the Miners' Executive, Messrs. Thomas and Cramp on behalf of railwaymen and Messrs. Williams and Gosling on behalf of the transport workers. The Prime Minister was accompanied by Sir Robert Horne, Sir Eric Geddes and Mr. David Shackleton..

The official report of the conference shows that representatives of railwaymen and transport workers warmly supppor'ed the miners' wages claim. Mr. Lloyd George insisted that if the miners presented their demand for increased wages, that demand must be submitted to a tribunal whose impartiality miners could not challenge, but he proposed as an alternative to this demand that miners and mine-owners should meet and agree on a scheme which would make increase of wages dependent on increase of output. He suggested that the level of the output should be fixed. All out put above this level should involve extra remuneration. This level might even be fixed below the present output, thus assuring certain increase of wages immediately. The Government were prepared to make this concession in view of the advantage to the country of securing a relation between wages and output.

CONFERENCE WITH MINE OWNERS.

Mr. Lloyd George urged that miners should suspend strike notices for a week or a fortnight while they examined with mine-owners the feasibility of the plan. The miners still urged the immedia'e increase of two shillings, but following upon the conference they deliberated privately on the new situation created.

The Triple Alliance Conference resumed this morning but adjourned immediately in order to consider the report of the Joint Deputation to the Premier last night in sections.

MINERS REJECT ARBITRATION.

RESULT OF SECOND BALLOT.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, Sept. 23.
Recd. 0.30 a.m. Sept. 25.

It is now announced that the Conference of Miners' Delegates rejected the proposal to take a second ballot on the question of submitting the two shilling wage claim to arbitration. It is understood that the letter from Mr. Lloyd George to Mr. Smillie was read at the conference of delegates.

GREEK ADMINISTRATION IN THRACE.

EVIDENCE OF TURKISH SATISFACTION

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, Sept. 22.
Recd. 0.30 a.m. Sept. 25.

Athens.—Turkish satisfaction with new Greek administration in Thrace is portrayed by a message from the Mufti of Adrianople to the Mussulmans of India, which states that normal conditions have been restored and that all inhabitants are looking after their affairs in perfect security. Finding that one law prevails, they are fully confident of the future. The Mufti cordially thanks Indian Mussalmans for their sincere interest.

HOW LONG?

that the facts mentioned in our issue of Thursday last are not correct. The facts which he gave are as follows:—There are about 400 weavers in the mill. Finer quality of yarn has been in use in the mill since April last and not in this month only, and the average wages they have been earning since then are as follows: May Rs. 57-2; June Rs. 55-9-6; July Rs. 61-7-6; August Rs. 55-8-6 and up to 16th September Rs. 30-8. These figures show that in spite of the finer quality yarn being used the wages have not fallen off and that the average wage has been Rs. 55-5-7 per weaver. Whereas other prominent mills pay 16 pies for a particular count, Mathradas Mills are paying 30 pies, and the wages they pay are the highest in the city, except in one or two other mills. About the payment of wages the Agents offered to pay the men's wages on the 21st and then again on the 24th but men would not accept them, although they had forfeited their wages owing to notice not being given. Mr. Mathradas is not disposed to re-employ the men, as he thinks, they go on strike every now and then and thus dislocate the work of the Mill and are a source of constant trouble. The Agents cannot think of any reason for the men going on strike.

ALL-INDIA POSTAL CONFERENCE.

POORLY TREATED POSTAL SERVICE.

MR. KHAPARDE'S SPEECH.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

DELHI, Sept. 24.

The first sitting of the All-India (including Burma) Postal and R. M. S. Conference was held here this morning, 232 delegates from all parts of India and Burma attended. Great enthusiasm prevailed. The chairman of the Reception Committee, Rao Sahib Bawa Teja Singh was unavoidably absent owing to the untimely death of his son which case spread a gloom o fsorrow over the whole proceedings. Mr. Lala, Deputy Postmaster, Delhi, represented the chairman and Mr. Ihsanullah Beg read his address in which he heartily welcomed the delegates and advised them to proceed on constitutional lines and recommended the election of the Hon. Mr. Khaparde to be the president of the Conference. Mr. Khaparde was duly proposed and elected President.

He then delivered his address in the course of whic hhe said:—

Gentlemen, I thank you very much for the honour that you have done me. My qualifications for the post are poor, as I never served in the Department, though I have seen some service as Magistrate and Judge. But as it is your mandate that I should preside I must obey and carry out your orders. It would be a mistake to regard this as an isolated movement. It is a part of the larger upheaval that is taking place all over the civilised world. First, it was a Monarchy that had its way, then came Oligarchy, Aristocracy and even Plutocracy and the present are the days of Democracy. There is an awakening among the wage-earning classes and they are coming into their own share, not only of production but of distribution and all administration. In general the word "labour" was first confined to persons who did actual manual work but has been extended now to all who make a living by the exercise of their bodily or mental powers or both combined. This is a great age of Democracy and in England it intervened in momentous questions of war and peace, as we saw only lately in case of the dealings of the British Cabinet with the followers of Wrangel and Denikin.

LABOUR TROUBLE.

To come nearer home we have our labour troubles but you are not that body. You are a smaller group of a larger group of Government servants confined to the subordinate staff of the Postal Department in India. You are not here to discuss questions of politics like co-operation and non-cooperation, nor social problems like those of marriage and inheritance or economical questions like those of currency and banking. You are here purely to better your conditions of service and seek that justice which appears to have been denied to you. You do not seek to reduce the privileges of others but to increase your own. It is not your case that the Members of the Telegraph, Revenue or other Departmen's get more, that they ought to but that you should get as much as they do to live properly. One must have enough healthy food and some leisure to indulge his taste in prayer, singing or other elevating occupations and until this minimum is secured nobody is or can be happy. To secure it therefore you have come together. Members of the judicial department did the same recently in Bombay. So did the Mamlatdars of the Revenue and Magisterial service. Even pensioners have joined together to increase their stipends. It is not wonder, therefore, that you should meet to do something similar. How would you proceed to do it?

THREE FOLD OBLIGATION.

You have to remember that you are Government servants and therefore bound to Government to do certain duties. You are also members of society and therefore you have certain obligations to discharge towards the society. Lastly, you are individuals or as we call house-holders and in that capacity you owe certain duties to yourself your family and relations. So any action that you take will have to be affected by considerations arising out of all those three relationships. You will do your utmost not to injure any of these and endeavour to improve them as far as it lies in your power. But at the same time putting yourself on terms of equality with the rest of Government servants, in all departments. How will you do this? You have to follow old methods of representing grievances, submitting petitions and memorials and sending deputations whenever necessary to local or Imperial Governments. To be able to do so you have got to organise into a central body with branches in provinces and ramifications into districts and even into taluqas. You will require services of whole time men and such assistances as become necessary from time to time. All this means sufficiency of funds. Without them in the present world nothing can be done. You must make arrangements for collecting funds and call a Finance Committee into existances. You will easily realize the gravity of the task, when you remember that you have to provide for maintenance of 91,000 men composing your body and over and above this organisation and collection of funds you require commnications with postal and other unions in England and if possible with all similar institutions in the civilized world which may be called fraternization. You probably remember that your present Director General Mr. Clarke is now on special duty assisting in the deliberations of international conventions of Postal arrangement on the Continent. So this way of inter communication may be said to be pointed out to you by our Government itself and you will be perfectly justified in following its lead. I may tell you that the Postal service is very poorly treated all over world and the reason of it would appear is that it is the service which the Government has the necessity to establish first and foremost of all. Even an army of occupation cannot exist and so it's work without maintaining communications with its outpost san dbranches. The Post Office being thus the oldest of depots has got into old rus and grooves which canno get rid of. Postmen have been as a rule humble beings, patient and willing to work without complaining. Hence it is he who has remained neglected and uncared for. You know the proverbs that unless a child weeps even its mother does not feed it. But now things are changing and I have no doubt your concentrated efforts directed towards proper objects in the way in which they should be would soon bear fruits and I heartily wish you success. I hope your language will be respectfull and loyal and in conformity with official usage and your proposal would be made with due regard to your three fold obligations already mentioned with the ultimate desire and object of such united action as appears most desirable according to the exigencies of each occasion as it arises.

PEACEFUL AGITATION TO BE CONTINUED.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

At the afternoon sitting of All-India Posta and R M. S. Association, two essays, appealing to delegates to continue agitation on peaceful and systematic lines till the goal is reached and making various suggestions about pay, time scale and promotions were read.

STOP THE WARS.

The folly of the Mesopotamian adventure grows more amazing with each day's news. Fortunately the Press of Great Britain, with one or two exceptions, is united in the demand for a drastic change of policy. The people who seem to be completely out of touch with public sentiment on the question, both in this country and in India, are the Cabine and the men on the spot. How far the letter are removed from the realities of things in this country is revealed by the calm demand of the special correspondent of the "Times" in the Middle East for public support for "a war as expensive as and more exhausting than the South African War." We doubt whether this is an adequate estimate of the expenditure of energy, money and human life that the continued pursuit of the mad folly of attempting to impose British rule on the Arabs would involve. But it will suffice. It is quite certain that the public support necessary for such a terrible enterprise will not be forthcoming. As for the Cabinet, the weakness of their position could not be more glaringly indicated than by Mr. Lloyd George's resort to the extraordinary conundrum, in support of his present policy, as to what we are to do if, having withdrawn to Basra, the League of Nations asks us to "advance" and "reconquer the country." The only people who are ever likely to make such an insane request are the oil magnates, who are working behind the scenes, and the Prime Minister will have to make up his mind, sooner or later, to choose between them and the electors.

"WITHOUT ANY FURTHER DELAY."

But in the meanwhile the madness goes on. Mesopotamia is in a state of anarchy. Added to the initial folly of the politicians who have involved us in this reckless enterprise is the folly of a military policy which has distributed the forces all over the country in "pockets." This policy seems to be the outcome of a delusion that the Arabs as a whole would welcome our attempt to impose upon them an administration which is entirely foreign and obnoxious to their notions of what they want and is chiefly notable for its extravagant cost. It would be difficult to imagine anything more helpful to a guerilla enemy. And we see the inevitable result in the isolation of numerous small posts which are all "in the air," and the predicament of women and children concentrated in camps which, apparently, have no safe means of communication and supplies, while Bagdad itself is isolated except for the means of communication along the Tigris. The "Times" remarks that the revelation that supplies cannot be sent to the British force near the Caspian Sea, and that hundreds of British women and children are isolated and that over the greater part of Mesopotamia our communications have collapsed, is only part of the story, but it is enough to go on with. It leads the "Times" into agreement with the plea that the only possible course open to the Government is to pour in reinforcements and to engage in the work of rescue, "for that is what it amounts to." The "Times," like most other papers, agrees that withdrawal must be eventually the only policy, but it contemplates as a preliminary a vigorous campaign that appears totally unnecessary, if sufficient pressure is brought to bear on the Government at once to obviate the necessity for rescuing people who are not in any immediate danger and need never be in any danger at all if the provocative cause is removed. The Arabs only want to be left alone, and we can imagine nothing more fatal to the prospects of a peaceful evacuation of their country, on which everyone is agreed as the ultimate policy, than to pour in reinforcements for a task which would quickly assume the proportions and character of a punitive campaign. We have not the least doubt that the Arabs who are now opposing, and rightly opposing, the attempt to force upon them an alien form of government which they naturally dislike and resent, would readily appreciate a declaration of a definite change of policy and a promise of speedy withdrawal, and do their utmost to assist in the process of the evacuation by the intruders, including the women and children. We are unable to appreciate the need for the pouring in of troops for a mission of rescue, if the Government will only make up its mind to do what the "Times" urges is the only right thing to do—to withdraw our military forces and the unwelcome army of civil administrators, bag and bag gage, without any further delay.

"STOP ALL IMMORAL WAR."

The alternative is fraught with peril from every point of view. We need not enlarge here upon the immorality of employing Indian troops on an imperialistic adventure in which India takes no interest and thoroughly detests. We need, for the present, only emphasise that if the adventure is to be pursued, there is no alternative to the employment of Indian troops. Where are the British troops to come from beyond those already employed and, perhaps, a few thousand more? They certainly cannot be spared from the regular forces, and the conquest of Mesopotamia for the oil magnates is not the sort of Empire "stunt" that will bring the Empire patriots pouring overseas from the self-governing Dominions. There is no alternative to the employment of Indian troops for adventures of this kind, whether in the Middle East or the Near East, and the continued use of Indian mercenaries for such purposes is not only immoral and illegal, but it is calculated to rouse such resentment both among the Indian soldiers themselves and their fellow-countrymen in India, that the Government would do well to pause and consider whether it is worth while to continue the exacerbation of feeling in India and the making of demands on the Indian army for a service so unpopular. But it would be folly to place any reliance on the likelihood of Mr. Lloyd George's Government, to say nothing of that of Lord Chelmsford, showing any respect for public opinion either in England or India in a matter of this kind, or exhibiting any sense of expediency at all. They only respond to practical demonstrations of public determination not to tolerate a policy pursued in defiance of public sentiment. And it remains with Labour in this country, through the Council of Action, and the Congress in India, by such means as it may deem expedient and feasible, to demonstrate clearly and uncompromisingly that the further sacrifice of British and Indian lives and money in Mesopotamia and elsewhere in Asia to capitalistic greed will not be tolerated. And such action cannot be applied to Mesopotamia alone. It must be used to stop all the immoral wars, which are propagating as much hatred in the world for the British and Indian soldiers who are used to conduct them, as for the Government which employs them. Let the people speak and make this iniquity impossible, as Labour spoke to foil the attempt to wage war on Russia.—"India."

MORADABAD POLITICAL CONFERENCE.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

MORADABAD, Sept. 20.

NON-COPERATION IN PRACTICE.

IN SINDH.

WITHDRAWALS FROM COUNCIL ELECTIONS.

(FROM A CORRESPONDENT.)

HYDERABAD, (Sind) Sept. 24.

Mr. Virumal Begraj, Chairman Congress Commitee, Mr. Kishindas Jhamrai, Secretary Congress Committee Dr. Sugnomal, Joint Secretary and Mr. Mulchand Pessumal, Chairman Managing Committee Municipality and pleader have resigned candidature of the Bombay Council in obedience to the Congress resolution.

IN ALLAHABAD.

MR. ZAHUR AHMED WITHDRAWS

(From our Correspondent.)

ALLAHABAD, Sept. 22.

Mr. Zahur Ahmed, Barrister-at-Law, Allahabad, writes: ever since the decision of the Central Khilafat Sommittee at my house in Allahabad on the 2nd of June, I had no mind to stand for any of the Councils and, now that the Khilafat Conference, the All-India Muslim League and the Indian National Congress have adopted Mahatma Gandhi's programme of Non-Cooperation, I declare that I can not seek election to any of the Reformed Councils, local or Imperial. My friends and the Majority of the Mahomedans of the Wiban Area of Allahabad, who generally favoured me with their support in matters of election and other public movements and desired me to seek election to the Council, should no longer remain in suspense, for the boycott of the Councils is the most vital part of the Non-Cooperation programme, as it reflects the opinion of the country more than any other item.

IN CALICUT.

(From our Correspondent.)

CALICUT, Sept. 24.

Mr. K. P. Raman Memon, B. A. B. L., leader of the Calicut Bar, President Malabar District Congress Committee and ex-member Madras Legislative Council has withdrawn his candidature to the new Madras Legislative Council.

He writes as follows to the local Press: In response to the resolution passed at the special session of the Indian National Congress, I feel bound to withdraw my candidature to the Legislative Council. I have always held, and still hold, the view that the boycott of Councils election is detrimental to the public interest, but, when once the resolution is accepted by the Congress, I have either to forego my connection with the great national assembly or to withdraw my candidature; and I choose the latter, though not without giving a great wrench to my feelings. I apologise to those gentlemen who have assisted me and particularly ask the pardon of the Malabar tenant class, in whom I had raised hopes which. I now find myself unable to fulfil.

Several influential gentlemen in the district were assiting Mr. Raman Menon, who had a very good chance of success.

LALA DUNICHAND NOT TO SEEK ELECTION.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

LAHORE, Sept. 23.

In the course of a letter to the press, Lala Duni Chand, Bar-at-Law, announces that he has definitely decided not to seek election to the Reformed Council in view of the Non-Cooperation resolution adopted by the Congress and in doing so he writes: I need hardly mention here that this decision of mine is strengthened not only by the failure of Government to punish the Punjab officials held to be guilty both by the Congress Sub-Commitee but also by fact that many political prisoners are still rotting in jails, that the Khilafat wrong is still unrighted and, moreover, the rules made under the Montagu-Chelmsford reforms are quite illiberal, nay, in many places, reactionary. In my opinion, we cannot live and prosper in our own country so long as we do not have Dominion Home Rule, such as is at present enjoyed by the Colonies like Canada and Australia.

NON-COOPERATION IN PANCH MAHALS.

(FROM A CORRESPONDENT.)

GODHRA, Sept 20.

The Gujrat Rajakiya Mandal appointed Dwar Manekla as organising Secretary for the Non-cooperation movement in the Panch Mahals. A conference of energetic workers of the district will be held at Godhra on the 27th September to settle the programme. Messrs. Valabhbai Patel, Indulal and Banker will address the Godhra public on the night of the 27th on Non-Cooperation.

AHMEDABAD LETTER.

NATIONAL UNIVERSITY FOR GUJERAT.

MR. GANDHI'S CIRCULAR LETTER.

(From Our Correspondent.)

AHMEDABAD, Sept. 21.

The Punjab and Khilafat have been engrossing topics for the last thirteen months or so. People felt humiliated over the events and tried their utmost to get redress. But the conviction, though a sorry one, was gradually dawning on them that their protests, and petitions and deputations would no longer serve them. They felt their helpless situation and searched for an effective weapon. This was placed before them in the shape of Non-Cooperation. Divided were the counsels and people came out questioning the constitutionality and practicability of the scheme. People saw their leaders wrangling with one another and despaired of a clear lead from them. However, they had their hopes in one man and he has not failed them. They felt at first hesitating and were at a loss where to move. But a lead was given them by the Gujarat Rajkiya Parishada. The movement further received its strength from the favourable verdict passed by the National Congress. People who hesitated and felt nervous are now quite determined on the point and try their utmost to fully carry out the Non-Cooperation programme. Non-Cooperation is the topic of the day, even the very atmosphere breathes of it. Time was when Gujarat was considered a negligible factor in Indian politics. That very Gujarat shall now lead India to the destined goal. Having the honour to claim Mahatma Gandhi as one of her noblest sons and as her contribution to the Indian Nationalism, Gujarat has the unique fortune at this critical time of having her ship steered by the brave pilot. Gujarat Rajkiya Parishada even in its short career of four years has never contented itself by passing pious resolutions. It has its executive which year in and year out carries out its mandate and the reports of Gujarat Rajkiya Mandal, the name by which, the Executive Committee goes, bear testimony to the sterling work put in. With the passing of the Non-Cooperation resolution it has bestirred itself unusually and with the help of district organisations has launched itself on conducting a vigorous propaganda in Non-Cooperation. Some Nationalists had early withdrawn their candidature for the new legislatures, while others who waited for the Congress mandate are now coming out with their announcements. However, people are not wanting who wish to earn these cheap honours. Some of them have never been known to take any interest whatsoever in politics, their only claim is that they have been all their life careful of their own interests and now can count upon their riches to gain them seats in the new legislatures. The demand for arbitration courts was so strong and persistent in the subjects committee of the Gujarat Rajkiya Parishada that though the scheme was not thought out, Mr. Abbas Tyebji, the President of the Conference, consented to act as an arbitrator. Now the Gujarat Rajkiya Mandala has appointed a committee which is shortly expected to bring out its report setting forth definite proposals for arbitration. Pleaders too are thinking of suspension of practice and they too are expected to come out with their announcements after making arrangements for the cases wherein they are at present engaged.

NATIONAL EDUCATION.

Lala Lajpatrai in his concluding speech as the President of the Special Congress expressed grave doubts regarding success of the National Education movement. Lalaji's opinion has all the force of the experience of a worker behind it and so must command all due respect at the hands of the sponsers of the new movement. But Lalaji himself would be the first to acknowledge that the time-spirit has worked wonders and his mother country is not the same as he left her while going out on his exile. The defects in the present system of education have been too glaring and have always attracted notice in proper quarters. An opinion was slowly but steadily forming itself that something should be done to set the matters right. Various experiments have been tried in different parts of the country but all have not borne fruits expected of them. This was due to the fact that they had not the strength of the popular will behind them. But with a people's will whole-heartedly supporting it and a nation in right earnest, National Education has full chance, particularly in a commercial province like Gujarat. Lalaji must have, in his travels, come across many institutions thriving without the least state assistance and their alumine receiving respect wherever they go. A similar thing is now in store for India. A feeling is current amidst a section of people owing to a very acute bread problem due to foreign exploitation that the Government jobs are the only source of maintenance and for them qualifications recognised by Government are necessary. But that feeling is fast dying out, particularly here where people with hardly any educational qualifications are seen making up their way. Many a Gujarati is known to finish his schooling after receiving so much knowledge as is of practical use to him in life, while others that follow the higher course do so but with little worldly considerations. The commercial houses are known to prefer candidates with a robust common sense to persons with high university qualification. In conditions like these a scheme providing means for general as well as higher education is bound to prosper. Gujarat is fortunate enough to possess a machinery ready at hand. More than one band of enthusiastic young men are working in the field of education in different parts of the province, and they can be relied upon to join this movement. The Board of Volunteers of Gujarat Kelavani Mandal has already expressed its opinion in favour of the movement. Gujarat Rajkiya Parishada appointed a committee to consider the question of National Education and it has not allowed grass to grow under its feet. A letter containing suggestions of Mr. Gandhi for a national university for Gujarat was circulated early last week, while a meeting was held last Sunday. Mahatma Gandhi was appointed the permanent president of the committee, while sub-committees were appointed to carry on propaganda and to constitute a scheme for the university. It is one of the suggestions of Mr. Gandhi that the rich should be asked to finance the scheme and to supervise its working by auditing the accounts. The nation can make a further demand on them that they should recognise the degrees conferred by the university and give preference to its alumni while making appointments to vacancies under their control. An employment bureau is a necessary feature of a modern university and its importance cannot be too strongly urged upon the committee.

A SCANDAL.

A high educational authority in this part of the Presidency was found last week travelling without a ticket, though he prides himself of doing so always undetected. The fun of the whole matter lies in this that he is so very particular about moral teaching that whenever he has an occasion of visiting a school, he always makes a fad of it. I do not know whether he favours the imparting of moral training by example or precept. So far he is known to be doing only a lip service to it as various irregularities associated with his name show. It is said he enjoys the good fortune of charging his house-rent on public revenues because he perhaps makes use of a room or two for office purposes. Such cases are highly deplorable everywhere and particularly in the educational department where every individual connected with it must be above suspicion. If these things be true, the officer requires to be removed from his high post, the earlier the better.

"INDORE SCANDAL."

TO THE EDITOR OF "THE CHRONICLE."

Sir,—I am not an Indorian, but I am connected with the place as a purely business man. I have been here for these 16 months, and I think that I am in a position to relate the history of Indore of that period quite disinterestedly.

As a matter of fact the Holkar State is more free from any sort of oppression than several Indian States. Every individual here enjoys his or her liberty as in a free country and in this respect the people here enjoy a freer atmosphere than what their brethren do in the Punjab, Sind or in some of the States in the Deccan.

There are parties here which are quite hostile to one another and every one of them tries to smother its opponent by any and every means, and none of them is particular about the manner it adopts to do it. This is possible in a State where there is no public opinion to appraise the value of any sort of calumnies which interested people set afloat against their opponents to discredit them. As one who has lived and moved among the people for some time, I have observed that the people, who, for the time being, are in eclipse degrade themselves to any level of meanness in order to discredit the party in the ascendant.

The latest manoeuvre which the submerged party has adopted is quite a novel one. For, the very rumour which they have been spreading in the town to the effect that good-looking middle class ladies are being outraged is meant to strike terror in the heart of the people and to wean the public from persons who hold the strings of the State in their hands. The correspondent who first rushed into print through your hospitality maintains that this outrage on fair-looking women has been a feature of the life at Indore for the last 12 months. But, as a matter of fact, no one at Indore knew or heard of it until you gave publicity to the statement of that correspondent. Granting for the sake of argument that the victims of such outrages are left in a way-side place in an unconscious condition, they could relate, after regaining their consciousness, their whereabouts during the period of absence from home. Could anybody with his head on his shoulders believe that the alleged outrages are committed when the victims are unconscious? Are the victims kept under chloroform all the while they are away from their home? Two of your correspondents say that there have been lately many instances of kidnapping of fair-looking women at Indore, but your readers and the general public cannot forget that at Indore there are courts, where justice is administered as in any other courts in British India, to which none of the victims or their relations have resorted up to now. The rumour-mongers might argue that respectable people do not like to wash such dirty linen in open courts. But to me it is an argument of the coward who dares not come out in the open to maintain public safety, if not for anything else? Sir, the tactics adopted by the mischief-mongers to discredit the responsible officers and incidentally to throw mud on the fair record of the State are mean in themselves and as an outsider I deem it my duty to appraise the public of the same.

In conclusion, I am anxious to make my position as a disinterested observer quite clear to the public. I am not a worshipper of the powers-that-be, nor do I seek any favour of any official of the State as I am engaged in an independent business, which carries no favour from any quarters except perhaps with the trading public, and I am, therefore, quite candid to call the spade by its name. Indore lags much behind some of the forward States such as Baroda and Mysore in respect of political progress, but on no account does it interfere with individual liberty of the person. If only a part of the energy which idlers and mischief-mongers spend in their vocation were directed towards the general progress of the State by creating a real public opinion in matters social, municipal, political, educational and economic, the classes and the masses would have been blessed. But one sees around in vain for such a healthy public life at Indore.—Yours, etc.,

NAGPUR CONGRESS PRESIDENTSHIP.

PUNJAB PROPOSES MR. ARABINDO GHOSH.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

LAHORE, Sept. 23.

NON-COOPERATION IN PRACTICE.

BOYCOTT OF COUNCILS.

The following letter has been addressed by the President and the General Secretaries of the All-India Home Rule League to all its branches:—

To

The President and Secretaries,

———Branch, Home Rule League.

Dear Sirs,

In accordance with the Resolution passed at the General meeting of the All-India Home Rule League at Calcutta, we beg to send the following instructions for carrying out the Non-Co-operation Resolution passed by the Special Session of the Congress:—

All Branches of the All-India Home Rule League are requested in accordance with its objects to enforce the Non-Co-operation Resolution of the Special Session of the Congress in so far as it advises action on the part of the people. And with a view to effective action all the branches are for the time being requested to concentrate their attention for the next two months principally upon complete boycott of the reformed councils. For that purpose all the branches are requested to canvass signatures on the following form on the part of the voters:

"In view and in virtue of the resolution of the Special Session of the National Congress and the All-India Moslem League, we, being voters in the electoral district of————for election to the reformed councils, hereby place on record our desire that we do not wish to be represented at the Priovincial Legislative Council (or the Legislative Assembly or the Council of State) and hereby inform all candidates for election that if they seek election in spite of our wish to the contrary, they will not represent us. We do not desire to be represented in the reformed councils till justice has been granted in the matters of the Khilafat and the Punjab and Swaraj is established in India."

Too much stress cannot be laid on the fact that before the signatures are taken the voters should be made to understand clearly what they are doing. No pressure of any kind should be exercised upon the voters. Candidates too should be requested to withdraw their candidature in obedience to the expressed wish of the voters, wherever more than half the number of voters have signified their wish in writing.

Further instructions as to the other items adopted by the Congress for immediate enforcement will be forwarded in due course.

DUTY OF VOTERS.

MAHATMA GHANDHIJI'S APPEAL.

The Special Session of the Congress by an overwhelming majority has decided in favour of complete Boycott of the Reformed Councils. It is therefore your duty not to vote for any candidate for election to the Reformed Councils. It is however necessary for any candidate who wishes to stand in your name to know that you do not wish him or anybody else to represent you. For that purpose you should sign the form that has been prepared for your signature. It is your duty also to tell your co-voters what they should do.

You know why it is wrong to enter the Councils. The Government have declined to grant justice to the Punjab. British Ministers have broken their pledged word to the Mussalmans and otherwise ignored the deepest Mussalman sentiments regarding the Khilafat.

We must get these wrongs righted and in order to prevent a recurrence of such injustice or bad faith we must obtain full Swaraj and must get rid of the badge of inferiority. We cannot do this by going to the Councils nor can we gain Swaraj by going there. On the contrary, although our representatives may vote agianst unjust Government measures, they will still be regarded as authors of those measures and thus be unwilling instruments of injustice. The best way therefore for conserving our honour, hastening the advent of Swaraj and righting those wrongs is for the voters not to send any representatives to the Councils.

"CHARTER OF SERVITUDE."

CEYLON'S NEW REFORM SCHEME.

(From Our Correspondent.)

COLOMBO Sept. 24.

An extraordinary "Gazette," incorporating the new Council Reforms, has now been issued. It covers twenty-five pages of foolscap. It begins with a proclamation by the Governor-in-Council, to which are annexed three schedules giving provisions of rules for the preparation of a register of votes, rules for election of members, and rules and orders of council and concludes with the Secretary of State's despatch to the Governor.

The Council consists of fourteen official members and twenty-three unofficial members, sixteen of whom would be elected. All officials in the island are bound to serve as nominated official members when required. The Governor is vested with powers to suspend nominated members and fill up the vacancies. Elected members are subject to residential qualification of at least three years in the constituency and must have either an income of 1,500 year or property worth 6,000 or be tenants paying rent of 500 in towns or 400 in country. No voter in one electorate can be elected for any other and he must have knowledge of English. Franchise excludes women, insists upon literacy, on a year's residence in the constituency, income of 600 year or property worth 1,500 or tenancy on rent of 400 year in towns or 200 year in country.

Every man convicted of an offence punishable with three months' hard labour is disfranchised.

The Governor is vested with great powers. He can prevent or arrest any discussion or any bill or resolution and has right to pass any resolution or motion by means of votes of the officials only or to veto any bill or motion. He can cut short any member's speech, if he thinks the member is growing tedious or irrelevant member can speak only for fifteen minutes on each motion, unless he is the proposer, when he can speak for thirty minutes.

The Press is entirely disappointed with the scheme as well as rules.

The "Daily News" publishes these documents under the heading "Ceylon's Charter of Servitude."

JEHAD LEAFLET CASE.

APPEAL DISMISSED.

(From Our Correspondent.)

LUCKNOW, Sept. 15.

Mr. B. Lindsay, Judicial Commissioner disposed of the Criminal application of Abu Turab Khan, made against the order of the Sessions Judge of Lucknow, confirming the conviction and sentence passed by the City Magistrate, Lucknow. The accused was convicted along with Amanat Rasul and Ashgar Hussain, of conspiracy, fabricating false evidence and committing forgery and sentenced to 6 months' rigorous imprisonment under each count.

The facts of this have been published in detail in the columns of this paper. The accused came in this court on revision side and the case put forward on his behalf was that the evidence was not sufficient to justify the conviction.

The J. C. heard Mr. Chaterji, Counsel for the applicant, at length and having seen the record and examining the evidence he was of opinion that there was sufficient evidence against the accused. One point which was raised on behalf of the applicant was that he was convicted mainly on the statement of a co-accused named Asghar Husain. It was said in the first place, that Asghar Husain's statement did not accept that contention. But Asghar Hussain's statement contained a distinct admission of incriminating facts and did amount to a confession which were against the applicant.

The J. C. found that there was no force in the application and dismissed the same.

A EUROPEAN IN TROUBLE.

ALLEGED THEFT OF DIAMOND RING.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

CALCUTTA, Sept. 24.

The "Englishman" reports the arrest of a European named G. M. Purchase, a tea planter in Shamshernagar in Assam, in a nursing home in Wood Street on a charge of theft. It is stated that in July last the accused wrote to Messrs. P. Orr and Sons, Madras, to send four of their best diamond rings worth about Rs. 3,500 to Rs. 4,000 for selection as he was going to get married. The rings were sent by post and arrived at Shamshernagar on the 4th ultimo. It is reported that the accused went to the post office and asked for the parcel, which was produced after placing it before the accused. The Postmaster, who was alone in the office, went back to look the safe. It is alleged that during this interval the accused abstracted the four rings from the parcel. The police traced three things. Accused came to Calcutta and went to a nursing home.

While his room was being searched, the accused is alleged to have tried to swallow a diamond ring but was detected.

AN INJUSTICE TO GOANESE SEAMEN.

TO THE EDITOR OF "THE CHRONICLE."

Sir,—There exists to-day great commotion among the poorer classes of Goanese domestics, the seamen, owing to recent arrangment arrived at by shipping companies to accept only about 20 per cent of Goanese seamen on steamers and the rest, i.e., 80 per cent European crew, with the result that thousands of Goanese seamen are found discharged on arrival of P. & O. and other liners in the City as each steamer comes in and these poor are to be found lying idle in their clubs, or the koors. They are illiterate persons, and the better classes of their countrymen seem despise them on account their low calling. The result is that no one cares to fight for their rights. It is said that these seamen had deputed someone to Genoa, with the permission of our Sarkar, to the Labor Conference there. The Deputy gave an interview to newspapers of the result of the Genoa Conference, but somehow or the other the 20 per cent arrangement about Indian seamen was omitted in the report. It is a great pity that the services of these domestics during the Great War are forgotten so soon by Government. Many of them lost their lives and several of them went to all parts of the world inspite of the submarine danger, and the British Government should not forget what the subject of Portugal, their oldest Ally have sacrificed during the War. These men have proved very useful for the kind of work on board the steamers, and it is said that the European crew now taken in their place are doing work for shorter hours and refuse to attend to the wants or requirements of passengers beyond certain hours, and the fraction of Goanese crew now retained are given the most menial jobs on very small pay which their European confreres refuse to do. Is it fair now that the war is over to overlook the past services of these poor Indians, and give them the worst jobs and that too to a small fraction? What a pass we seem to have come to! As these men are illiterate and the wealthier classes of their countrymen do not take up the cudgels on their behalf, would you Mr. Editor wield your mightly pen and fight on their behalf for their rights? It is a gross injustice that is being done to these Indian seamen. The P. & O. and other Companies should have fought on behalf of these men who have rendered good service not only during the war but also at other times.—Yours, etc.

SYMPATHISER OF THE POOR.

Byulla, Sept. 22.

CHALLENGE TO PARIS.

In mail week the "Daily Herald" published the text of an agreement between General Wrangel and the French Government.

Under the terms of this agreement General Wrangel offered in return for recognition and support to acknowledge, in the event of the overthrow of the Soviet Government, the whole Government and municipal debt of Tsarist Russia. And he offered as security for the payment of this debt and of the interest on it certain concessions.

France was for a period of years to control the railways of European Russia; the Black Sea Customs were to be allocated to debt charges; France was to receive stated proportions of the South Russian wheat, the Donetz coal, and the Caucasus oil. There was to be an offensive and defensive alliance between the French Republic and the "new" Russia. And another secret treaty was to settle the destiny of the border States.

The French Government issued a manifesto declaring this document to be "a forgery fabricated by Bolshevik agents for purposes of foreign propaganda." Some of the clauses, it states (but carefully refrains from specifying them), are entirely opposed to French policy.

But it admits that General Wrangel has "given France assurance concerning his intention to respect the international engagements entered into by Russia."

Those "assurances" have never been made public either by General Wrangel or by the French Government.

Why not?

Even now the French Government does not dare to publish them.

Why not?

It is easy enough to say that our version is a forgery. But it will be less easy to prove that facile statement.

We suggest to the French Government that it should try: and that, just to begin with, it should publish its own verson of its agreement with General Wrangel.

If it won't do that—well?—"Daily Herald."

HAPPY TERMINATION OF AGRA FRACAS.

LEADERS BRING ABOUT "ENTENTE CORDIALE."

ENTHUSIASTIC SCENES OF JOY.

(From our own Correspondent.)

AGRA, Sept. 21.

The Khilafat Committee, Delhi, received information of Agra disturbance on the 16th and on 17th Hakim Ajmalkhan, accompanied by Mr. Asaf Ali Lalla Shanker Lal and Moulana Aryfhasvi and Abdullah and a batch of 21 volunteers proceeded to Agra. They found Agra in a state of complete "hartal," picqueted by foot and mounted police. Hindu and Mahomedan leaders regarded the situation as grave, and did not care to venture into the affected areas, such as Phulhatti and Garhia, two of the worst places. The authorities alleged to have regarded the situation sufficiently ugly to requisition the military, and to restore order. The Delhi party divided itself into Hindu and Mahomedans reconnoitering batches, and were sent to the affected quarters to gauge the prevailing feeling, and prepare ground for necessary pourparlers. The reconnoitering parties brought reports which enabled the Delhi party to plan a preliminary reconciliation campaign, which involved consulation with Mahomedan and Hindu men of influence in different Mohallas and the assemblage of exclusive Hindu and Moslem gatherings. All this took some four hours, but the preliminary work proved hopeful, and by about noo favourable signs began to appear. Strenuous efforts had to be employed to effect all this. The atmosphere changed sufficiently about 1 p.m. to enable a small party of Delhi Moslem Volunteers to cross the Rubicon, and pass into Phulhati, the Hindu-affected quarter by 3 p.m. Both Hindu, and Moslems were converts to counsels of reconciliations, and the very persons, who were led to seek lathis before, vied with one another to seek flowers for the necks of their quondams opponents.

ENTENTE CORDIALE.

The same evening saw huge masses assemble in a public place. Touching speeches were made by Hakim Ajalkhan and Messrs. Asaf Ali and Lala Shanker Lal. Cessation of friction and the re-union of Hindus and Muslems were announced by the leading men of Agra, amid jubilant shouts of "Bharat-ki-jai," and from that moment phenomenal demonstrations of restored entente were the order of the day's end. The entire mass of men assembled in the public meeting proceeded in a procession throughout Agra City. The demonstration of joy reached its culmination when the Hindus and Moslems entered the previously-affected quarters, side by side shouting "Bande Matram," "Allah-ho-Akbar," etc.

RECONCILIATION BOARD.

The next day was spent by the Delhi party and the leading Agra Hindu and Moslems, in attending the parties given in honour of the restored entente. The foundation of a mixed Reconciliation Board has been laid to decide the disputed points. The Delhi party regards this an object lesson for the whole India.

LT.-GOVERNOR ARRIVES AFTER CALM.

APPEAL TO ENQUIRE INTO OFFICIALS' ATTITUDE.

(FROM A CORRESPONDENT.)

AGRA, Sept. 21.

Hakim Ajmaljhan, Mr. Asaf Ali, Mr. Shanker Lal and others arrived on the 18th. Moslem leaders visited the affected Moslem area, and the Hindus to the Hindu area. Both addressed the places. Afterwards Hindus went to the Moslem quarters and the Moslems to the Hindu quarters and appealed the public. A Moslem meeting was held at Imambara, in the afternoon. A joint Hindu-Moslem meeting was held in the evening. Messrs. Asaf Ali, Shanker Lal, Hakim Saheb, and Malkhan Lakshmy Dutt's stirring speeches produced magic effect. All misgivings were dispelled and complete peace was restored. Hindus and Moslems were garlanded, and embraced each other. Hakim Sahib was taken in a huge procession. Thousands joined the next day. Hakim Sahib's party was feasted by Hindus at Pulathi, the scene of bloodshed. Leading Moslems joined another party given by Mr. Dholikhar Immamuddin. Leading Hindus gave a third party. Suitable speeches were made by Hakim Sahib and Messrs. Asaf Ali, Shanker Lal and Lakshmi Dutt.

In the evening a public meeting was held under Mr. Alaynabi's presidentship. Mr. Asaf Ali spoke impressively. Rain disturbed the meeting. Delhi leaders were given a hearty send-off.

DEPORTED PRIEST.

IGNORANT WHY HE WAS ORDERED OUT.

Father C. Jerger, the Catholic priest who has been deported from Australia by the Commonwealth Government, reached Plymouth, in mail week, and continued his voyage to London.

The Father, who has spent nearly 35 years in Australia, interviewed by the "Daily Chronicle" representative, said:—

"I am very inidgnant at the action of the authorities in sending me to Europe. I have no knowledge of the cause that has led to my enforced departure from the Commonwealth.

TREATED VERY HARSHLY.

"All the while I have been there I have never interfered in political matters. I have been treated very harshly. Early one morning, without a word of explanation, I was taken from my sister's house by the military authorities and put on boardship. Then I was transferred to another ship, but in each case the crews refused to sail with me on board.

"Then I was secretly transferred to the Khyber without even being allowed to bring my own personal belongings.

Pending the decision in London I am going to St. Joseph's Retreat, Highgate, and there await developments."

The PISTON RING METER, as the illusttation shows is, a graduated loop of steel tape clearly marked in millimitres, from 50 to 150, and fixed to any convenient bench. REALISM IS THE KEY NOTE OF THIS HENDED PICTURE.

Melbourne MacDowell, the well-known legitimate actor, makes his first appearance on the screen in the Triangle play, "The Flame of the Yukon," by Monte M. Katterjohn, starring Dorothy Dalton. He appears as Black Jack, a dance hall proprietor and gambler, who is mistrusted, hated and feared by his neighbous. At the close of the story a much wronged miner volunteers to rid the camp of this curse, aud what is said to be the most realistic fight ever screened ensues.

THIS TRIANGLE PLAY HAS REAL ESKIMOS

In "The Flame of the Yukon," in which Dorothy Dalton is presented as star, one sees the long main street of this Yukon town, which had grown up almost overnight. This street was reproduced with a fidolity seldom attempted. Every feature in the original was retained.

Real Eskimos in their native furs and ornaments will be seen in the Triangle play, "The Flame of the Yukon," by Monte M. Katterjohn their daily arrival and departure from the Triangle studios were watched with eager curiosity by the young folk at the beach, who imagined that a circus had struck town.

A miniature tribe, consisting of twenty people, was secured for the production.

ALASKAN DOG TEAMS SEEN IN YUKON PLAY

Malamutes and wolves figure largely in the Triangle drama. "The Flame of the Yukon," by Monte M. Katter john. in which Dorothy Dalton is starred. The story is laid iu an Alaykan town in the days of the gold rush in 98. Dog teams, of course, furnished the sole means af transportation in those days, In the picturesque street erected for this picture are seen the "huskies" arriviug frem the gold fields dragging the heavy sledges,

The dogs and sledges used in this play were all from Alaska, Without their aid it wenld have been imposible to film the picture with any degree of veracity. Director Charles Miller grew accustomed to the moods of these four-footed actors, some half wolf and half dog, with the result that the camera has caught them unawares in their most characteristic poses.

Alaskan Town In the Gold Rush Days Is Seen In "The Flame of the Yukon"

Triangle, builder and specialist in villages, has almost outdone its former efforts at realism in the reproduction of a famous Alaskan town in the first gold rush days. It was erected on the great range at Hartville, which has the most varied collection of villages in filmland. In completeness and accuracy it vies with the Mexican, Holland, Irish, French and other villages that have framed the picturesque back grounds for many Triangle plays.

ENTERTAINMENT TO LADY MONRO.

SIMLA LADIES' TRIBUTE.

(From Our Correspondent.)

SIMLA, Sept. 22.

An interesting ceremony took place in Simla, yesterday, when the ladies of Simla entertained the Hon. Lady Monro at a tea party at the Barnes Court. Lady Chelmsford was among those present, and the only men who were at the party were Sir Charles Monro, Sir Edward Maclagan, Captain Winthrop, A.-D.-C., and Mr. E. J. Buck, the Hon. Treasurer of the Ladies' Committee. The Viceroy's band was in attendance, and after tea Lady Jacob, on behalf of several hundreds of ladies, presented Lady Monro with three Indian carpets as a farewel present.

LADY JACOB'S TRIBUTE.

Lady Jacob spoke excellently and her speech which was applauded, ran :—It is my very pleasant duty, Lady Monro, to ask you in the name of her Excellency and the ladies of Simla to accept a small token of our affection and esteem. The pleasure which we feel at taking part at this little ceremony must, however, be tinged with regret at the approaching departure from India of one who has endeared herself to all who have had the privilege of knowing her during her too brief stay in this country. The work you have done, Lady Monro, both here and in Delhi, for those connected with the army, your manifold yet unobtrusive activities for the good of others, and your unswerving desire to add to the happiness of those around you, will ever be remembered with gratitude by us all. We can testify in all sincerity too to the kindly tact you have displayed in smoothing over differences, in preventing differences from arising, and in promoting a spirit of cooperation and goodwill. No one who has enjoyed the hospitality of Snowdon, of Flagstaff House, during the past four years, can ever forget the friendly atmosphere which prevailed there and made the guests, whatever their rank or station, in life, feel that the welcome given them was no mere matter of ceremony but came from the hearts of their generous hosts. You have shown, Lady Monro, that it is possible to diffuse an atmosphere of genuine human friendliness without any sacrifice of the true dignity of a great lady, and when the time comes, for you and your distinguished husband, to leave the shores of India you will take with you the heart-felt wishes of us all for your future welfare and happiness. It is an additional source of satisfaction to us to know that any pleasure you may derive from the use of these carpets which we are asking you to accept, today, can be shared by Sir Charles who has won the affection and esteem of us all. We hope that wherever you may go, these carpets will recall the happy days spent in this country, and, like the magic carpet in the "Arabian Nights", will carry you back in spirit to your friends in India, among whom your memory will ever remain fragrant and sweet. (Loud applause.)

Mr. E. J. Buck, who had acted as Hon. Treasurer, next thanked the Committee sincerely, for the high honour they had paid him in allowing him to be present at the first purdah party of his life He also alluded to the delightful atmosphere which Lady Monro, as a charming and popular hostess, had created at Snowdon, and after several humorous remarks he said he must allude to the feeling of anger which all the men in Simla felt at the women having denied them the chance of joining in this testimonial. Mr. Buck concluded by handing Lady Monro a list of the subscribers to her present and said :—"Lady Monro, it is now my proud privilege to now hand you this little book in which you will find written the names of many who love you, and who will always remember you, your delightful hospitality, and your work in India." (Applause.)

The band then struck up the tune of "He's a Jolly Good Fellow."

LADY MONRO'S REPLY.

Lady Monro, who was entirely taken by surprise, then rose and delighted the audience with her response. She said :—"I hardly know how to tell you, how profoundly touched I am by this lovely token of affection. My time with you is now drawing to a close, and this gift will be a lasting reminder of the four years I have spent in India, years fraught with great anxiety of wonderful experiences and delightful friendships. Since my arrival in India it has been my ambition to make all those with whom I have been associated, and especially the soldier community, which is my nearest care, feel that our interests and work were identical and that in Snowdon we were representatives of a big family merely separated by degrees of rank and responsibility, but animated with one aim and purpose. It has been such a pleasure to me to have been afforded this opportunity of assuring you of my warm feelings of friendship for you, and it only remains for me to wish you every blessing and good fortune in the future, and to thank you again not only for these beautiful gifts, but also for the ungrudging response you have invariably given me, on all occasions when we have been brought together during the past four years." (Prolonged applause.)

Her Excellency Lady Chelmsford, in a few well-chosen words, paid a high tribute to Lady Monro's work and personality and the proceedings came to an end with the band playing "Auld Lang Syne."

NON-CO-OPERATION PROPAGANDA.

PUBLIC MEETING IN BELGAUM.

(FROM A CORRESPONDENT.)

BELGAUM, Sept. 23.

Besides Messrs. Deshpande and Majli who have already suspended practice many more vakils are going to suspend practice in course of time. On Wednesday night a crowded meeting of Hindus and Muslims numbering more than ten thousand was held at Taboot mandap, Belgaum. Mr. Majli presided. The chief speaker was Mr. Deshpande. The proceedings commenced with the singing of the National song in Hindi.

MR. DESHPANDE'S SPEECH.

Mr. Deshpande spoke on the present situation and the duties of Indians at this critical moment for full three hours. He mainly discussed two questions the Khilafat and Swarajya and explained the Non-Co-operation resolution and its practicability with special reference to the conditions in Egypt and Ireland. He gave a vivid description of British diplomacy exploitation and military imperialism. He said the solution of the Khilafat question according to the wishes of Indian Muslims alone will lead to the peace of Asia and the world and to attain this goal Swarajya is essential and is the only remedy.

PRACTICAL NON-CO-OPERATION.

He said "let us therefore as true and loyal Congressmen work up the Non-Co-operation resolution setting aside our own views and opinions about the same. Let us have a Non-Co-operation Committee. Let us go to every town and village and explain the Non-Co-operation principle. None of the Muslims and Hindu candidates should go to the Councils. Let us organise a regular and vigorous propaganda to make Non-Co operation a success, so that not a single voter should go to vote.

Moulana Shaukat Ali and Mahatma Gandhiji are visiting Belgaum soon. Show them that you are true Hindus and Muslims. Resign titles, leave Government schools, suspend practice, and use Swadeshi cloth." He ended his speech with a most eloquent and passionate appeal to the audience to do practical work. Some Muslim speakers also spoke. [illegible] the presidential address the meeting dispersed.

C. P. AND BERAR.

DIVIDED ON BOYCOTT OF COUNCILS.

(Associated Press.)

RAIPUR, Sept. 23.

In spite of the decision of the Nationalists' Conference at Nagpur regarding the boycott of councils, public opinion is sharply divided in Berar and the Central Provinces.

The Mahajana Conference in Berar has declared against this decision and has considered the boycott of council an impracticable step and detrimental to the interests of India. It is reported that the Hon. Mr. Khaparde will give a lead to council elections in Berar.

In the Central Provinces, several prominent candidates including Mr. Bishnu Dutt Shukal, late member of the Viceroy's Council, have not declared withdrawal of candidature. It is urged that, if the minority candidates declare withdrawal from council elections, they must choose either to accept the majority resolution as permanent plank in the Congress programme and give effect to it; or, if they consider it detrimental to Indian interests, they must stand for elections and work for its reversal or modification. It is felt that agitation for revision of the Special Congress resolution cannot be carried on consistently with the carrying out of the Congress programme.

NON-CO-OPERATION IN PRACTICE.

WITHDRAWALS FROM COUNCIL ELECTIONS.

Messrs. Dolabroy N. Desai (of Kharsad), Balkrishna (alias Bando) Anant Joshi (of Dharwar), and H. R. Desai (of Dharwar) have declared their intention to withdraw from the coming Council elections in accordance with the Special Congress Resolution on Non-Co-operation.

IN AMRITSAR.

VOTERS REFUSE TO REGISTER.

The Amritsar correspondent of the "Tribune" writes:—

Further results of to-day's (16th September) claims for registration as voters for the Legislative Council and the Legislative Assembly are still more remarkable. Out of 98 non-Moslem claimants in Divisions No. 2 and 3, not a single man turned up to proceed with his application. In Division No. 11, none out of 37 claimants and objectors appeared, while in Division No. 12 and the Civil Lines only 4 out of 53 presented themselves and their claims were allowed.

NON-CO-OPERATION CAMPAIGN IN SHOLAPUR DISTRICT.

(FROM A CORRESPONDENT.)

KURENDWADI, Sept. 22.

Dr. Savarker and Ashapure pleader, commenced Non-Co-operation campaign vigorously in Sholapur District, requesting voters to withhold their votes according to the Congress mandate.

ALLEGED DETENTION OF CONSTABLE.

ACQUITTAL OF AN ENGINE DRIVER.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

LUCKNOW, Sept. 23.

The trial of Mr. George Casells, engine driver, G. I. P. Railway, stationed at Juhi on a charge of wrongfully confining a policeman was concluded on the 22nd instant after a trial lasting for four days before the Sessions Judge, Lucknow. The case is an off-shoot of another case against Mrs. Luther and others for smuggling opium and cocaine and firearms. 21st June was fixed for hearing of the cocaine case and police constable Jai Bodh was sent to Khandari Bazar to warn certain witnesses to attend court. He left the police thana according to the prosecution story at about 6-30 a.m. Mrs. Luther and Mr. Pereira two of the accused were living in a house in Khandari Bazaar. Mr. Casells, brother-in-law of Mrs. Luther, was present at the house that morning and it was stated that Jai Bodh was kept a prisoner in the compound. The defence however argued that Jai Bodh had entered the compound between 3 and 4 a.m. and was seized as a loiterer.

The question before the jury was whether Jai Bodh had entered the compound between 3 and 4 a.m., or after 6-30 a.m. If the latter be the case the accused Casells who had detained the contable was guilty and if before daylight then Casells had done right in detaining the loiterer. The jury brought in a verdict of not guilty by a majority of 3 to 2. Orders will be passed on the 25th.

PREFERENTIAL TREATMENT.

TO THE EDITOR OF "THE CHRONICLE."

Sir,—With reference to the strike of the postmen, there appeared a notification in the local papers to the effect that the Postal Department had made necessary arrangements and that the public should co operae with the Department and send their men to receive their respective letters at the notified post offices. I accordingly sent my peon with a letter to the post master to deliver all my letters to him, but to my surprize no body even cared to receive my letter from him and deliver him the letters addressed to me. Not only that but the poor peon was not even allowed to go in, but was pushed back, while some Europeans who came to receive their letters were allowed in. This is quite unfair. The postal authorities must stop this preferential treatment as everybody has an equal right to inquire about his or her letters.—Yours, etc.,
